

SCOTT MEACHAM
OKLAHOMA STATE TREASURER

MONTHLY INVESTMENT
PERFORMANCE REPORT

JANUARY 2007

February 7, 2007

To the People of Oklahoma:

I am pleased to issue the January monthly investment performance report for the Office of the State Treasurer. I trust you will find it thorough and in keeping with my commitment to provide full disclosure of all activities within my office. As always, my staff is available to answer any questions you might have.

Market Conditions

Bond yields were higher in January. Yields were up about 40 basis points since early December. The 10-year Treasury ended the month at 4.81% while the yield curve continued a 10 basis points inversion between 10-year and 2-year Treasury notes. U.S. stocks rallied on the last day of January, completing their longest stretch of monthly gains in more than a decade. The Dow Jones Industrial Average (DJIA) gained for a seventh straight month and the S&P 500 rose an eighth consecutive month. The Nasdaq jumped 2%. As expected, the Federal Open Market Committee (FOMC) kept the Federal funds rate target at 5.25% at the January 31st meeting. The post-meeting statement indicated the predominant concern is inflation. A decision on whether to raise rates again depends on “incoming data.”

Economic Developments

The Institute for Supply Management index rose to 51.4 in December, from 49.5, back above the breakeven level of 50. New orders and production both edged up in December. The unemployment rate was unchanged in December at 4.5%, near a five-year low. US average hourly earnings were up 8%. Retail sales rose 0.9% in December from the month before. The biggest winners included electronics and appliance stores, where sales rose 3% in December from a month earlier and 15% from a year earlier. For December, the headline producer price index (PPI) rose 0.9%. There was a 1.7% rise in food (up 26% for fresh fruit, due to the California freeze) and 2.5% rise in energy prices. The U.S. trade deficit fell 1% in November, to $58.23 billion. This was the third monthly decline and the lowest level in more than a year. American exports were up 0.9%, capital goods exports up 1.9% and consumer goods exports up 1.4%. The consumer price index (CPI) rose 0.5% due to a surge in energy prices. Core inflation, excluding food and energy prices, rose 0.2%. Compared with a year earlier, overall prices rose 2.5% and core prices were up 2.6%. The Commerce Department’s advance estimate of GDP growth in the fourth quarter of 2006 reported 3.5% annualized growth last quarter. Unusually warm weather fueled housing starts in December as they were up 4.5%. Housing permits were up 5.5%, the first increase in 11 months. Existing home sales fell 0.8% in December following a 0.5% rise in November. For all of 2006, sales of existing homes were down 8.4% from 2005, the largest annual decline since 1989. The existing-home median price was up 1.1% to $222,000. The Conference Board’s consumer confidence index edged up slightly to 110.3 in January from 109.0 in December.

Portfolio Commentary: Performance, Diversification, and Strategy

Yield on the Treasurer's portfolio was 4.80% in January, up two basis points from December and the weighted average maturity was 417 days. The year-to-date monthly average investable base was up to $3.431 billion. Portfolio diversification continues to be sound. U.S. Treasuries composed 17 % of holdings, and U.S. government agencies and instrumentalities accounted for approximately 52%. Certificates of Deposit represented 7% of assets, money market mutual funds 7%, and 14% was maintained in overnight repurchase agreements. Link deposits (at less than 1%) and State bond issues (at 2%) made up the balance of funds invested. In keeping with the State's statutory investment objectives, the portfolio strategy continues to seek safety, liquidity, and return on investment, in that order. Based on market conditions, portfolio strategy will consist of a combination of laddered maturities and market observation for investment opportunities.

Collateralization

All funds under the control of this office requiring collateralization were so secured at rates ranging from 102% to 110%, depending on the type of investment.

Payments, Fees, and Commissions

All securities were purchased or sold on a net basis utilizing competitive bidding where practicable, with no additional fees or commissions known to the State Treasurer. Bank fees, mutual fund operating expenses and fees charged by JPMorgan Chase for the Tri-Party Repurchase Agreement Program are detailed in the attached pages, as is the earnings split between the Treasurer and the master custodian bank on securities lending income.

Sincerely,

SCOTT MEACHAM, STATE TREASURER

Explanation of Performance Comparison January 31, 2007

The following page presents market rates of return on the Securities portion of the General Account and of the State's aggregated State Agency Accounts. The figures, which are dollar- and time-weighted, where appropriate, are calculated using the percentage change in market value (inclusive of accrued income) from the end of the prior month to the end of the reporting month. To ensure the integrity of the data, this information is provided by the Treasurer's custodian bank acting in its capacity as an external third party. As such, performance measurement is presently confined to those investments which are custodied at Northern Trust ("Northern").

The Treasurer's office is trying to develop a method to report rates of return on all investment instruments in the State's portfolio. This is in an effort to report return data in a manner recommended on September 15, 1994, by the Working Group of the Cash Management and Investment Oversight Commission. However, there are technical and conceptual challenges to expanding performance measurement to other portions of the portfolio. Attempting to apply market-base pricing calculations to instruments which do not trade, such as Certificates of Deposit, presents difficulty which is both conceptual and technical in nature.

Benchmark data is also provided on the following page.
