A charitable collaboration brewer license shall authorize the collaborating licensed brewers and holders thereof:

To formulate, manufacture, bottle, package and store the charitable collaboration beer, or any part thereof, on the licensed premises.

To sell the charitable collaboration beer in this state to holders of beer distributor licenses.

To sell the charitable collaboration beer out of this state to qualified persons for the sole purpose of fundraising for the stated charitable purposes.

To sell the charitable collaboration beer in this state to holders of retail licenses.

To serve free samples of the charitable collaboration beer produced by the collaborating licensed brewers to visitors twenty-one (21) years of age or older on the collaborating brewery licensed premises.

To sell the charitable collaboration beer produced by the collaborating licensee brewers for either on-premises or off-premises consumption to consumers on the brewery premises, or on premises located contiguous thereto.

To sell the charitable collaboration beer produced by the collaborating licensed brewers at public events such as trade shows or festivals.

To purchase the charitable collaboration beer produced by the collaborating licensed brewers in retail containers from the holder of a beer distributor license to sell or serve in accordance with this section.

Nothing in this section shall prohibit the holder of a charitable collaboration brewer license from also holding or owning an interest in the holder of a brewpub license.

No visitor may sample more than a total of twelve (12) fluid ounces of the charitable collaboration beer per day. The brewer must restrict the distribution and consumption of charitable collaboration beer samples to an area within the licensed premises designated by the brewer. A current floor plan that includes the designated sampling area must be on file with the ABLE Commission. No visitor under twenty-one (21) years of age shall be permitted to enter this designated sampling area when samples are being distributed or consumed. Sales and sampling may only occur between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 2:00 a.m.
