Thompson Introduces McWilliams at GSBC

Commissioner Mick Thompson was pleased to introduce Jelena McWilliams, Chairman of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC), who delivered the opening keynote address of the 69th Annual School Session of the Graduate School of Banking at Colorado (GSBC) on July 15, 2019. "We were honored by the opportunity to host Chairman McWilliams at GSBC and appreciated the insights she shared with our student body on the state of community banking," said GSBC President Tim Koch.

Nelson Attends MOKAN Conference

Regional Examiner Rick Nelson recently attended the 40th annual MOKAN Trust & Financial Services Conference in Kansas City. The conference included about 350 attendees and provided a number of quality presentations addressing current issues related to trust department and trust company activities. The Oklahoma Banking Department supervises 16 active bank trust departments and 7 independent trust companies, with assets ranging from about $3 million to nearly $5 billion. Three examiners are currently assigned to the trust specialty area and maintain professional certifications.
