

OSBD Personnel Attend MOKAN Trust Conference

written by Wayne Arbuthnot

State Banking Department Regional Examiner Rick Nelson, Senior

Examiner Daryl Jones and Assistant Deputy Commissioner Wayne Arbuthnot were amongst the 300 individuals who attended the 2018 MOKAN Trust Conference in Overland Park, Kansas. Attendees included trust officers and operational staff, attorneys, financial planners and both state and national regulators. Nationally renowned speakers presented on an array of important topics including regulatory updates, trust liability issues, the economy, the new tax law, and financial management. This conference was very informative and educational to all who attended.

Seiling State Bank Celebrates 100 Years

Seiling State Bank celebrated its 100th Anniversary on May 16, 2018. From the bank's website:

"Farmers & Merchants Bank in Seiling was issued a charter on November 15, 1901. In April 1907, the bank changed its name to the First National Bank. W. L. Pittman purchased controlling interest in Seiling State Bank on May 16, 1918. On April 16, 1934, W.L. Pittman purchased all the stock in the First National Bank and merged with the Seiling State Bank. The First National Bank name and charter was retained and the state charter was turned in for cancellation. W.L. Pittman was Chairman of the Board until he died in 1967 at the age of 92. His son, W. H. Pittman, became President in 1962 and later was Chairman of the Board until he died in 1999. Kitty Pittman was Chairman of the Board until June
