

Oklahoma Public Finance Alliance

Spring Forum | April 22, 2026

8:30 – 9:00

Registration and Breakfast

Check in at Five Moons Theater and enjoy a continental breakfast.

9:00 – 9:15

Welcome Remarks from State Treasurer Todd Russ

9:15 – 10:00

Beyond the Numbers: Telling the Story Behind the Deal

A candid discussion on how issuers communicate the purpose, impact, and public value behind their financing, and build understanding and support among stakeholders and decision-makers.

10:15 – 11:00

One Source of Truth: Modernizing with DebtBook

A demo and discussion on how DebtBook helps issuers move from spreadsheet-based tracking to a unified Treasury Management System. This session features a high-level look at DebtBook's modern platform – centralizing debt, cash, and investments into a single source of truth.

11:15 – 12:00

Safeguarding Public Finance: Cyber and AI Strategies for Resilience

Explore cyber risks and practical strategies for securing financial systems and municipal bond transactions, including incident response and proactive defense strategies.

12:00 – 1:00

Buffet Lunch and Networking

1:00 – 1:45

What's Keeping Issuers Up at Night: Hot Topics in Public Finance

A timely discussion on navigating market volatility and evolving policy considerations.

1:45 – 2:00

Closing Remarks

2:00 – 2:45

Guided Museum Tour

Tour the museum and learn more about its history and exhibits. Funded in part through bond financing by the Oklahoma Capitol Improvement Authority, the museum serves as a great example of public and private partnership, making it a meaningful setting for OPFA's inaugural event.

OKLAHOMA
State Treasurer