DPPA PERMISSIBLE USE FORM

Records Containing Personal Information Obtained from Motor Vehicle Records

Pursuant to Oklahoma Statute 51 O.S. §24.5A(1)(c); personal information within driver records is confidential and protected. The Federal Driver's Privacy Protection Act (DPPA), 18 U.S.C. §§ 2721-2525, regulates access to personal information obtained from motor vehicle records. Under 18 U.S.C. § 2721-2725 and 51 O.S. §24.5A(1)(c), the Oklahoma Board of Tests for Alcohol and Drug Influence will make records containing personal information obtained from motor vehicle records available to an Attorney/Law Firm or other qualified Requester based on the Requester's certification that the Requester is authorized to obtain and use the records. This form must be completed before records containing personal information will be released without redacted information.
