POULTRY HOUSE CONTRACTOR INITIAL/RENEWAL LICENSE INFORMATION

Applicant must be at least eighteen (18) years of age or older.

Applicant must be the party performing, overseeing, or otherwise responsible for the work performing solely poultry house premise wiring for environmentally controlled poultry house systems, and the insured poultry house wiring to connect the premise wiring, and who do not perform any wiring for a structure or electrical facility that is not directly involved in the operation of the environmentally controlled poultry house wiring system.

All licenses are nontransferable, and it shall be a misdemeanor for any business entity holding a poultry house contractor license under the provisions of the Electrical License Act to loan or allow the use of such license by any other person, firm or corporation.

A poultry house license shall expire one (1) year from date of issuance at which time the license may be renewed upon meeting the requirements of 59 O.S. § 1686.1, and paying the nonrefundable license renewal fee. (For further information, an unofficial copy of the Electrical License Act, 59 O.S. § 1680, et seq., and the Electrical Industry Regulations, OAC 158:40 can be found on the CIB website, www.cib.ok.gov.)

No exam is required for licensing. No continuing education is required for renewal of a poultry house contractor license.

Experience under the Poultry House Electrical Contractor license shall not be considered qualifying experience for application of any other electrical license category.

Fees: $300.00 nonrefundable fee must be submitted with an application for an initial Poultry House Contractor license.

$200.00 nonrefundable fee must be submitted with an application for renewal of a Poultry House Contractor license.

$300.00 late fee for renewal applications received thirty (30) days after expiration of license.
