Use of Force Instructor Course

This 8-hour course incorporates lecture, video analysis, and classroom discussion. The curriculum focuses on a wide-range of legalities pertinent to understanding Use-of-Force and has been designed to cover some of the most critical, contentious, and controversial aspects of this topic.

Course modules include and examine:

• Instructor Image, Course Preparation & Presentation
• Reasonable Application of Force and Case Law
• Aspects of Force for Corrections & Security Personnel
• Identifying Pre-Assault Behavior
• Use-of-Force Models and Usage
• Understanding Video Evidence
• Medical Implications of Use-of-Force
• Use-of-Force Policy Development
• Use-of-Force Report Writing
• De-Escalation & Scene Co-Management
• Assessing Use-of-Force Evidence & Incidents

Upon certification, participants will possess the knowledge and be provided with course material to conduct a relevant classroom presentation to their officers regarding Use of Force.

This course is taught by law enforcement personnel who understand police Use-of-Force and have been recognized as subject matter experts. These instructors have taught, utilized, and testified at all levels related to this topic and will aid in setting attendees on a path for becoming experts for their agency. Certification will be active for three years.

ADDITIONAL DETAILS:

The Defense Technology Training Academy (DTA) trains only sworn law-enforcement officers, correctional personnel, state-licensed security personnel and active military personnel.

REQUIRED EQUIPMENT:

• Notebook and pen
• Department Use of Force Policy

Host Agency:
Class Location:
Date(s):
Duration:
Airport:
Hotel/Phone:
Tuition:

www.defense-technology.com/training | 800.347.1200 (option training)