

LEADING WITHOUT EGO

SUPERVISORY LEADERSHIP ACADEMY

Created and Taught by Earl Morrison, Chief of Police – Broken Bow Police Department and Owner of Leading and Learning With Character, LLC

Location: EOC Tech Center, 4601 N Choctaw Rd, Choctaw, OK 73020

Hosted by: Chief Kelly Marshall and the Choctaw Police Department

Dates: Nov. 2–4, 2026

Time: 8:00 AM – 5:00 PM

Cost: $395

Length: 24 PDH’s (Including 2 Mental Health Hours)

CLEET Course #: 26-0886 (24 CE, including 2 Mental Health)

Audience: Supervisors, command staff, emerging leaders, and other professionals • Open to the Public

Strong leadership is not defined by authority alone. It is defined by character, discipline, and the ability to influence others with credibility and trust.

The Leading Without Ego Supervisory Leadership Academy is a 24-hour leadership development program designed to help supervisors lead with clarity, restraint, and influence in demanding professional environments.

TOPICS COVERED

- Managing ego and emotional reactions in leadership
- Character and discipline under pressure
- Communication, tone, and leadership presence
- Decision-making and responsibility in leadership roles
- Influence beyond rank and authority
- Building high-trust organizational culture
- Motivating and developing future leaders
- Leadership resilience and public trust
- Legacy leadership and long-term impact

COURSE OUTCOMES

Participants will leave this academy better prepared to:

- Lead with humility and credibility
- Make disciplined decisions under pressure
- Strengthen trust within their teams
- Develop future leaders within their organizations
- Build a culture of professionalism and accountability

Register Here:

<https://earlmorrison.com/live-classes>

Questions? Email us at

earl@earlmorrison.com