

You are cordially invited to attend the 2025 Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation Sexual Assault Awareness Month Symposium.

Date: Friday, April 11, 2025

Time: 9am – 4pm

Location: Northeastern State University – Broken Arrow
3100 New Orleans St.
Broken Arrow, Oklahoma 74014
Administration Services Building

This free event will be held in the auditorium of the Administrative Services building, located in the center of the NSU Broken Arrow campus. Cost-free parking for the symposium is designated in the West Parking Lot just west of the Administrative Services building.

Lunch will be provided for the first 200 registered attendees. Should you wish to have a lunch provided to you, please register via the following link as soon as possible, as quantities are limited and available on a first come, first served basis: <https://haruv-usa.org/events/2025-osbi-sexual-assault-symposium-be-heard-be-believed-be-supported/>

This free event is open to the general public and professionals including law enforcement members, clinicians, community-based service organizations, and victim advocates, and serves to commemorate National Sexual Assault Awareness Month (SAAM); raise awareness about sexual assault prevention; and improve resources, outreach, and response strategies in Oklahoma communities.

Numerous agencies will be on site to provide information and resources answer questions.

Your participation makes this initiative possible and your investment into the public service of Oklahomans is greatly appreciated.

PLEASE SHARE THESE EVENT DETAILS WITH ANYONE YOU FEEL MAY BENEFIT FROM OR HAVE AN INTEREST IN THIS FREE COMMUNITY EVENT.
