

VICTIM IMPACT PANEL CERTIFICATION FORM

(October 1, 2025, through September 30, 2026)

The 2020 Oklahoma Legislature enacted HB 2877 (effective September 1, 2020) setting forth minimum compliance requirements for Victim Impact Panel programs (VIP) and designating the District Attorneys Council (DAC) the repository of such compliance information. A listing of all compliant VIPs will be provided to all District Court judges and all District Attorney's Offices in Oklahoma.

VIPs seeking a statement of compliance shall provide the required documents and registration fee to the District Attorneys Council on or about October 1, 2025, and on or about October 1 of each year thereafter. The documents and fee may be submitted prior to October 1 of a given year but will be applicable only for the year reflected on the form.

Certified assessment agencies, certified assessors and providers of alcohol and drug substance abuse courses are prohibited from providing a victim impact panel program, and from having any proprietary or pecuniary interest in a victim impact panel program. (22 O.S. §991a (H)(3) (OSCN 2020))
