   The minutes were approved by majority vote. There was no further discussion.

10. Director’s Comments

    Joe M. Allbaugh, Director

    Director Allbaugh provided the following comments to the BOC Members:

    - The FY2019 Capital Outlay Request will be presented in May for approval by the BOC. Topping the list is a request for the water treatment plant at Mack Alford Correctional Center and an offender management system.
    - Approximately 191 expired vests are being replaced throughout the agency.
    - Requests for Information (RFI) on an offender management system has been sent and it is under final review with the Office of Management and Enterprise Services.
    - A centralized hiring unit for correctional officer cadets has been created and is currently being staffed. This will allow a streamlined process for hiring officers throughout the state.
    - The second cadet class is currently in training at the Wilson Training Academy.
A fleet management unit was created in the last year to better control maintenance and monitoring of the agency’s vehicles.

A video-visititation pilot project is being tested at the Union City Community Correctional Center and the North Fork Correctional Center.

G Unit at Joseph Harp Correctional Center (JHCC) is being converted to a mental health unit. Once the conversion is completed, approximately 80 inmates housed in the mental health unit at the Oklahoma State Penitentiary (OSP) will be moved to JHCC.

A new chapel project at the John Lilley Correctional Center has been initiated and is pending building permit approval from the State Fire Marshal.

The boiler and chiller project at the OSP is almost completed and the OSP perimeter lighting project is ongoing.

On December 9, 2016, the ODOC reached a total of 61,000 inmates/offenders under our supervision which includes those in county jail backup. On this date, the total reached 62,000 inmates/offenders within our system and in county jail backup. County jail backup will continue to grow as more offenders are sentenced to incarceration and housing options become less.

In closing, Director Allbaugh introduced and welcomed Mr. Mark Myers as the director of Communications. Chair Roach welcomed Mr. Myers to the ODOC and extended his congratulations on his new position.

There was no further discussion.
