Inmate Libraries

Oklahoma Department of Corrections (ODOC) facilities and contract facilities provide access to comprehensive library services which include both general and specialized materials to meet the educational, informational, and recreational needs of inmates in accordance with 57 O.S. § 510.5 (Oklahoma Inmate Literacy Act). (5-ACI-7E-01) Library materials will be available in languages represented by the significant number of inmates in the population.

I. Library Supervisor (2-CO-5F-01, 5-ACI-7E-01, 5-ACI-7E-02, 5-ACI-7E-03, 5-ACI-7E-04, 5-ACI-7E-05, 5-ACI-7E-06, 5-ACI-7E-07)

There will be a library at each institution. Each institution will have access, through the Oklahoma Department of Libraries and/or agency staff, to a qualified staff person with a Master of Library Science degree to coordinate and supervise library services and train other library staff. (5-ACI-7E-02, 5-ACI-7E-03) To ensure adequate library resources are available, including interlibrary loan programs, processes will be in place for disposal, ordering, cataloging, and lending/loaning library materials. These services will be made available to all inmates. (2-CO-5F-01, 5-ACI-7E-04, 5-ACI-7E-05)

A. Duties

The library supervisor will:

1. Ensure a comprehensive system of books, periodicals, newspapers, reference materials, and equipment is available to meet the needs of the inmate population, subject to availability of resources; (5-ACI-7E-01)

2. Establish and maintain a system for locating, ordering receiving, cataloging and shelving new or donated library materials; (5-ACI-7E-01)

3. Establish and maintain a system for ensuring interlibrary loan access for both staff and inmates and for the distribution and use of interlibrary loan materials within the scope of conditions imposed by the lending library. This system will also include verification of the availability of an inmate’s funds to cover the mailing and potential replacement cost for any materials requested via interlibrary loan. A hold shall be coordinated through the facility’s designated business office for the amount required for the interlibrary loan as outlined in Section II. of this procedure; (5-ACI-7E-05)

4. Establish library hours, ensuring the library is open daily as well as evening, weekend, and holiday access. This may be achieved through extended time limits on material checkout, satellite libraries, and other options that may be developed at the institutional level; (5-ACI-7E-06)

5. Establish and maintain a system for receiving donations of library materials from external sources such as colleges, universities, public schools, public libraries, etc. that is consistent with the mission of the facility and the security level of the inmate population to be served;

6. Select, train and supervise inmate library assistants to ensure maximum accessibility to, and utilization of, library resources by the inmate population and staff; (5-ACI-7E-07)

7. Maintain the library and building order, and provide discipline and security through clearly defined behaviors and performance expectations through fair, firm and consistent enforcement; and

8. Establish and maintain a check-out system for library resources that establishes responsibility and accountability for those resources and provides the foundation for recovery, replacement of, or reimbursement for lost, damaged or stolen items.

II. Access to Library Services (5-ACI-4A-23, 5-ACI-4B-23, 5-ACI-7E-05, 5-ACI-7E-06)

All inmates are eligible to participate in library services subject to the procedures in place at the facility level. The facility administrator and/or correctional teacher II/site administrator may suspend or otherwise limit access for cause.

Library services will be available daily, including evenings and weekends. (5-ACI-7E-06) Library hours will be posted at each institution. Service will be provided to inmates in secure units and other special housing areas. (5-ACI-4A-23, 5-ACI-4B-23) Inmates are allowed to utilize the interlibrary loan service at facilities throughout the state, provided the inmate signs the “Interlibrary Loan Agreement”
III. Inmate Library Assistants (5-ACI-7E-07)

Inmate library assistants may be selected depending upon educational background, experience, and institutional record. Inmate library assistants and clerks will receive training prior to assignment and as needed by the library supervisor. Inmate training courses will include sufficient information and material to enable inmates to perform their duties in an effective manner. (5-ACI-7E-07)

IV. Special Management Units (5-ACI-4A-23, 5-ACI-4B-23)

Inmates in secure units and other special housing areas will be provided library services through a traveling cart/distribution system that draws from the centralized collection. A list of items available from the library will be maintained in the unit office. (5-ACI-4A-23, 5-ACI-4B-23)

A. Inmates will complete forms available from the unit officer to request books from the main library, which will be delivered by cart or other distribution method within five working days.

B. Each inmate may request up to two books per week.

C. Library materials in the central collection will be delivered on an established schedule at least two times a week. Delivery of materials from other sources may require additional time.

V. Prohibited Materials

Library materials will not contain instructions for the manufacture of drugs, weapons, explosives, other unlawful substances, or tattoos; advocate overthrowing the federal or state government and/or advocate terrorism, criminal behavior, racial, religious or national hatred. Any material that provides detailed information on how to escape, creates an unsafe environment for the inmates or staff, material encouraging unnatural or aggressive sexual behavior, material that is obscene, indecent or is classified as erotica is prohibited.

VI. Publication Review (5-ACI-7E-04)

With the exception of the restriction against hardbound books, all library materials coming into the facility will be monitored in accordance with OP-030117 entitled “Correspondence, Publications, and Audio/Video Media Guidelines.” (5-ACI-7E-04) Each facility will establish facility staff member(s) to review materials and ensure guidelines are followed regarding appropriate materials.
