Personal Hygiene and Appearance Code

A personal hygiene and appearance code is maintained and enforced as it affects the safety, health and welfare of the inmates, the security of the facility, prevention of unrest and friction among inmates and staff and the mission of the department. (2-CO-4D-01, 5-ACI-3D-18) Personal hygiene will be considered when reviewing inmates for level promotions in accordance with OP-060107 entitled “Systems of Incarceration” and OP-060203 entitled “Adjustment Review.”

I. Personal Hygiene and Appearance

All inmates will maintain proper personal hygiene and appearance as outlined in this procedure. Clothing will be neat, clean and appropriate for the situation. Hair will be kept clean and free of unpleasant odors at all times. Fingernails will be clean and not extend past the fingertip. Clean is defined as free of dirt, body odor, body oil, lice, ticks, nits, dandruff or foreign substances. Reasonable accommodations will be made to ensure inmates with disabilities are provided the opportunity to perform self-care and personal hygiene. (5-ACI-2C-13, 4-ACRS-6A-04-2)

II. Personal Hygiene Services/Supplies

A. Bathing Facilities

To maintain personal hygiene, sufficient bathing/shower facilities will be available to provide all inmates with the opportunity to shower/shave a minimum of three times per week. (5-ACI-5D-13) All bathing/showering facilities and opportunities will comply with the requirements listed in OP-030601 entitled "Oklahoma Prison Rape Elimination Act." (PREA 115.14 (a), 115.15 (d), 115.42 (f))

B. Hair Care Services

Hair care services will comply with sanitation/health standards and will be made available to all inmates upon request or as specified by the facility head during facility inmate orientation and through posting in one or more inmate accessible areas. (2-CO-4D-01, 5-ACI-5D-15)

C. Personal Hygiene Items (5-ACI-5D-14, 4-ACRS-4B-01)

Hygiene items will be provided through reception, canteen services or as necessary to provide for continual adequate hygiene. The process for obtaining hygiene items and the frequency of distribution will be addressed during facility inmate orientation and through posting in one or more inmate accessible areas. Indigent inmates will be given the minimum amount needed to accommodate their need between issuances. At a minimum, items available through the canteen or to indigent inmates will be:

1. Soap/deodorant soap;
2. Shampoo (Institutions may provide shampoo through canteen services as defined during facility inmate orientation and through posting in one or more inmate accessible areas);
3. Toothbrush and tooth powder/paste (denture cleanser/adhesive, if needed);
4. Comb;
5. Toilet paper;
6. Razors (The use of razors may be limited per OP-040204 entitled "Segregation Measures," when such items may be destroyed or used to inflict injury);
7. Sanitary napkins/tampons (females); and
8. Deodorant.

III. Hair and Facial Hair Grooming Standards

Except when a valid interest justifies otherwise (as described in this procedure), facilities will allow freedom in personal grooming. (5-ACI-3D-18)

A. Hair and Facial Hair for Male Inmates

1. Procedures upon arrival at the assessment and reception center.

Upon initial reception, each newly incarcerated male inmate is required to meet the following standards without exception:

- a. Hair will be cut and facial hair removed by appropriate method including shaving, depilatory or clippers.
- b. For purposes of proper identification and photographs, facial hair will be removed as close as health reasons allow.

2. Hair Styles for Men

Thereafter, male hairstyles and appearances, including facial hair, will not conflict with security, sanitation, safety, or health requirements of the agency.

- a. The growing, shaving, cutting, or styling of hair will remain in compliance with this procedure.
- b. The growing, shaving, or cutting of hair, which results in a change in the inmate's appearance, will require taking a new identification picture at the inmate's expense, in accordance with OP-040115 entitled "Inmate/Offender Identification and Crime Alert Bulletin."
- c. Bleaching, dying, or engraving in hair and any type of foreign objects/ornaments woven/worn in hair is prohibited.

B. Hair Styles for Females

Upon reception at the assessment and reception center and upon assignment to a facility, hairstyles for female inmates will comply with conventional community standards.

1. Grooming and appearance will not conflict with the security and safety requirements of the facility.
2. The growing, shaving, or cutting of hair, which results in a change in the inmate's appearance, will require taking a new identification picture, at the inmate's expense, in accordance with OP-040115 entitled "Inmate/Offender Identification and Crime Alert Bulletin."
3. Bleaching, dying, or engraving in hair and any type of foreign objects/ornaments woven/worn in hair is prohibited.

IV. Personal Hygiene and Appearance Enforcement

- A. Inmates are responsible for maintaining their personal hygiene and appearance.
 - 1. Inmate appearance standards prohibit the sagging of pants, wearing clothing items that have holes in them as a style of dress, are extensively stained or the display of any security threat group identification.
 - 2. Shirrtails, with the exception of inmate scrub tops, will normally be tucked in or at the discretion of the facility head.
- B. Relaxed appearance standards may be specified by the facility head for recreational activities such as ball games, during exercise periods and after work hours while on the unit. Conditions when appearance standards may be relaxed will be posted in appropriate areas.
- C. Inmates will be dressed at all times except for approved shower times and bathroom use.
- D. Disciplinary actions may be taken for violations of hygiene, safety and appearance regulations.

V. Prohibited Items

With the exception of religious headgear, as specified in OP-030112 entitled "Religious Services," headbands, do-rags and bandanas are prohibited.

Tattooing and body piercing, to include wearing any pierced jewelry, is prohibited during the inmate's period of incarceration, with the exception of female inmates who may possess and wear earrings in accordance with OP-030120 entitled "Inmate Property."

VI. Exceptions

Inmates assigned to a regimented treatment program are required to adhere to appearance standards established in each program.

VII. Notification of Personal Hygiene and Appearance Code

The facility head will ensure inmates are notified of personal hygiene and appearance guidelines during facility inmate orientation and through posting in one or more inmate accessible areas.
