Progressive Disciplinary Procedures

(Revision-02 dated 06/14/2022) The Oklahoma Department of Corrections (ODOC) established the following procedures to ensure a safe and productive work environment through the prompt application of appropriate discipline that is equitable and suitable for the offense considering the circumstances and which provides a limited due process. [Civil Service Rule 260:130-27-1] (2-CO-1C-01, 4-APPFS-3E-16)

(Revision-02 dated 06/14/2022) These procedures are intended to provide discipline which is consistent, impartial, and predictable while preserving the flexibility to respond with varying penalties, if justified. [Civil Service Rule 260:130-27-3]

Discipline, in general, is applied progressively; however, progressive and consistent discipline does not preclude the use of more severe disciplinary responses to serious infractions, nor does it require it be applied without regard for individual differences such as length of service, performance record, position or other mitigating or aggravating circumstances. (4-APPFS-3E-16)

(Revision-02 dated 06/14/2022) Prolonged, serious or repetitive job performance deficiencies will also be documented in the performance evaluation and during periodic reviews in accordance with OP-110225 entitled "Performance Management Process." Such evaluations will be used for current or former state employees in decisions regarding promotions, appointments, demotions, performance pay increases, and discharges. (74 O.S. § 840-4.17) The appointing authority can make decisions regarding demotions and discharges on current state employees with or without the performance evaluations, if deemed necessary.

Referrals to the Employee Assistance Program (EAP) for treatment or counseling, in addition to a disciplinary response, may be appropriate under certain conditions and employee participation in treatment or counseling may serve to mitigate a disciplinary response.

For the purpose of this procedure, the term "facility head" will apply to wardens and community corrections centers administrator and the term "unit head" will apply to unit administrators and probation and parole administrators.

I. Step One: Employee Engagement

Employee engagement is the first step of progressive discipline and may include steps of warning, discussion, corrective interview, coaching, counseling, oral reprimand, or a Letter of Concern. For purposes of the Merit Protection Commission, employee engagement will be equivalent to informal discipline.

A. General Guidelines

The goal of employee engagement is to bring potential problems to an employee's attention before they escalate.

1. Documentation regarding employee engagement progressive discipline will be maintained in the employee's disciplinary file maintained by the facility's/unit's human resources office.
2. A copy of any written disciplinary action will be provided to the employee.

B. Content (See "Example/Letter of Concern" (Attachment A, attached))

Employee engagement progressive discipline should notify employees of:

1. The nature of the problem which is cause for the employee engagement and the steps which must be taken to resolve the problem; and
2. The consequences of repeated infractions, and/or continuing deficient performance or conduct.

II. Step Two: Disciplinary Actions with Complaint Rights

Progressive discipline actions with complaint rights include letters of reprimand, suspensions without pay, and involuntary demotions. (5-ACI-3D-14, 4-ACRS-7E-10)

A. General Guidelines

1. Absent aggravating conditions, the second step of progressive discipline will be disciplinary actions with complaint rights and will take place after employee engagement.
2. (Revision-02 dated 06/14/2022) Discipline action documentation will include a citation of any other discipline which was used in the decision to administer disciplinary actions with complaint rights. Supervisors are prohibited from considering incidents that occurred longer than four years prior to an offense in order to move to a higher level of discipline except where the prior incidents involving the following types of conduct:

- a. Criminal activity;
 - b. Sexual misconduct and/or harassment;
 - c. Discriminatory behavior and/or harassment;
 - d. Threats or acts of violence against employees in the workplace; and
 - e. Drug and/or alcohol use or abuse on the job.
3. (Revision-02 dated 06/14/2022) The employee will be provided a copy of any disciplinary document at the time the disciplinary action is taken. (Civil Service Rule 260:130-27-4). Discipline documents will be provided to an employee in person. In the event that an appointing authority is not able to provide the documents in person, the appointing authority will provide these documents through acceptable means to include certified restricted delivery mail and electronic mail.
 4. All written reprimands, suspensions without pay, and involuntary demotions will be forwarded to the office of the General Counsel for review prior to issuance.
 5. (Revision-02 dated 06/14/2022) No discipline will be effective prior to the date delivered to the employee.
 6. (Revision-02 dated 06/14/2022) A copy of all discipline actions with complaint rights will be forwarded to the chief administrator of Human Resources or designee.
 7. Documentation of actionable discipline will be maintained in the employee's disciplinary file. The disciplinary file will be maintained by the facility's/unit's human resources office with the personnel file and will be available for review by the employee.
- B. (Revision-02 dated 06/14/2022) Causes for Discharge, Suspension without Pay and Demotion (4-ACRS-7E-10, 4-APPFS-3E-17)

C. Discipline for Failure to Comply with State Income Tax Laws

Upon receipt of notice from the Oklahoma Tax Commission (OTC) that an employee has failed to comply with state income tax laws, 68 O.S. § 238.2 requires that the appointing authority commence disciplinary action.

All disciplinary action required by 68 O.S. § 238.2 and OP-110215 entitled "Rules Concerning the Individual Conduct of Employees" will adhere to the following guidelines:

1. (Revision-02 dated 06/14/2022) The chief administrator of Human Resources or designee will notify the appropriate facility/unit head and provide instructions regarding the appropriate disciplinary action. The disciplinary action will be maintained according to this procedure.
2. If the notification is the employee's third notification as a state employee, regardless of which agency the employee was employed by at the time of the first and second notices, the employee's wages will be garnished pursuant to statute.

The OTC has sole responsibility for identifying employees that are not in compliance with state income tax laws and making notification of their respective tax status to the ODOC.

3. All discipline will comply with all statute, rules, and these procedures concerning the discipline of state employees.
4. Disciplinary actions will reference the provisions of 68 O.S. § 238.2 and the notice received from the OTC.
5. The facility/unit head will forward a copy of all discipline actions as a result to the chief administrator of Human Resources or designee.

Employees will be suspended without pay in full work week intervals, unless the suspension is imposed for a violation of workplace conduct rules. The facility/unit head will take possession of the employee's badge and assigned weapon during any period of suspension.
2. This action does not represent, or take the place of, any final disciplinary action that may be taken following disposition of the charges. The final disciplinary action taken must be in accordance with the provisions of this procedure and other applicable statutes and rules.
3. In the event the charges are found without merit or not sustained in a court of law, the employee will be reinstated with pay and benefits; however, this does not preclude the facility/unit head from proceeding with a final disciplinary action based on the circumstances.
4. In the event the charges are substantiated, the facility/unit head will proceed with a final disciplinary action unless a forfeiture of employment has occurred.

B. Content

(Revision-01 dated 02/14/2022) Suspensions without pay (under 57 O.S. § 510.B) will be administered in accordance with the provisions of Section IV. above except that the suspension period will be for an indeterminate number of days pending disposition of the charges. The documentation will state the beginning date of the suspension, and cite the reason for suspension as pending felony charges.

VII. Step Three: Ending the Employee/Employer Relationship (4-ACRS-7E-10)

A. Guidelines

Aggravating and mitigating circumstances will be considered when assigning a level of discipline. Based on relevant circumstances, a single incident may justify a higher level of discipline including ending the employee/employer relationship through termination.

(Revision-02 dated 06/14/2022) All terminations will be forwarded to the office of General Counsel for review before issuance.

B. (Revision-01 dated 02/14/2022) Termination During the Trial Period

The employment of any state employee may be terminated at any time during the trial period without the right of complaint as set forth in Civil Service Rule 260:130-19-31.

- c. Any instructions for the return of agency property; and
- d. A statement that the employee may provide a written response for placement in the personnel file.

C. (Revision-01 dated 02/14/2022) Terminations

(Revision-01 dated 02/14/2022) This applies to all employees except those who are in a trial period or those designated in the 5% of executive staff. Following notice and opportunity to respond and in accordance with these procedures, an employee may be terminated.

1. (Revision-01 dated 02/14/2022) Employees will be provided a notice of proposed termination and given time to make a written response. (See "Example/Notice of Proposed Termination and Opportunity to Respond" (Attachment H, attached)). (4-APPFS-3E-15)

 - e. A description of the specific acts or omissions which are grounds for the proposed termination; and

2. (Revision-01 dated 02/14/2022) Notice may be skipped if after consultation with the office of General Counsel a determination is made that based on the evidence of performance or conduct violation no mitigating factor would prevent the termination.
 3. (Revision-01 dated 02/14/2022) Terminations will contain the following information: (See example “Example/Termination Letter State Employee” (Attachment F, attached))
 - a. The date the employee was informed of the termination;

 - d. A citation of any previous disciplinary actions which were used in the decision to administer the termination;
 - e. Effective date of the termination;
 - f. A statement of the employee’s right to file a complaint with the Civil Service Division; and
 - g. A copy of the Civil Service Division’s complaint petition.

VIII. Retention/Confidentiality/Distribution of Disciplinary Documents

All disciplinary documents will be retained in the employee’s disciplinary file maintained by human resources with the employee’s personnel file and treated as confidential except that any final disciplinary action which results in the loss of pay will be treated as an open record in accordance with 51 O.S. § 24A.7.

Employees will be served with the disciplinary action at the time the disciplinary action is taken. A copy will be placed in the disciplinary file and a copy provided to the chief administrator of Human Resources.

The facility/unit head will take possession of the employee's badge and assigned weapon during any period of suspension.

4. If the employee was suspended with pay for investigatory purposes and is cleared, the employee's personnel records will be fully cleared and every reasonable effort made to fully clear any related external records.
5. If the allegations against the employee are confirmed, in whole or in part, a suspension with pay in accordance with this section will not preclude an appointing authority from taking disciplinary action in accordance with Oklahoma Law and rules.

X. Additional Personnel Actions Which Are Not Discipline

The following personnel actions are not discipline and are not subject to the requirements outlined for discipline within these procedures:

A. Termination upon Conviction or Plea of Guilty or Plea of Nolo Contendere to a Felony Offense

2.20).

XI. Distribution

A. Employees
