Review of Committee Loans at a Specific Threshold

Rep. Jonathan Wilk

Executive Director's Report

Rulemaking Notice and Consideration

AMENDATORY Ethics Rule 2.67. Loans to Candidate Committees by Candidate and Other Non-Financial Entities.

(A) A loan by any person other than a commercial financial institution to a candidate committee shall be considered a contribution from the lender, guarantor or endorser in the amount of the balance of the loan that has not been repaid.

(B) A candidate may make a loan to his or her candidate committee from his or her personal funds or from joint funds of the candidate and the candidate's spouse. If a candidate makes such a loan to his or her candidate committee, (a) the terms of the loan must be in writing, signed and dated by all parties involved, in a document executed contemporaneously with the transfer of funds into the candidate committee's account; and (b) a copy of the loan document must be provided to the Ethics Commission at the time or within three (3) days of execution. ~~The document must be signed and dated by all parties involved.~~ Such a loan may be repaid from contributions received by the candidate committee, but the candidate committee shall not be permitted to pay any interest on the loan. Any candidate that loans $100,000.00 or more to their committee shall be subject to a formal compliance review to be conducted by the Ethics Commission to determine and verify the source of the funds used for such loan.

(C) If a candidate transfers his or her personal funds or joint funds of the candidate and the candidate's spouse to the candidate committee without a written loan document, the candidate committee cannot repay the candidate for the transfer.

(D) A candidate who makes expenditures from personal funds or joint funds of the candidate and the candidate's spouse that are not transferred to the candidate committee's account shall not have made a loan to the committee. Such expenditures that are not intended to be reimbursed shall be reported as contributions to and expenditures by the candidate committee, or as in-kind contribution to the candidate committee. Expenditures that are intended to be reimbursed must be reported as in-kind expenditures on the report covering the time period during which the expenditure was made and be reimbursed within ninety (90) days of the expenditure.

Candidate Compensation from Own Committee

Rep. Max Wolfley

Executive Director's Report

Rulemaking Notice and Consideration

AMENDATORY Ethics Rule 2.43 Candidate Committee Expenditures is amended to read as follows:

Contributions to a candidate committee may be used to make expenditures for ordinary and necessary campaign expenses, for contributions to another candidate committee, for operating expenses of the committee or for other purposes not otherwise prohibited by law or these Rules. "Ordinary and necessary campaign expenses" as used in this section are those that would not exist but for the candidate's campaign, including but not limited to staff salaries, campaign consulting fees, rent (other than for the candidate's residence or part of a residence), travel, advertising, telephones, office supplies and equipment, fundraising, individual memberships in political organizations, individual memberships in civic or charitable organizations, legal fees for the campaign, payment for campaign accounting or bookkeeping services or campaign finance reporting services and repayment of the principal and interest on a loan as permitted by these Rules. A candidate cannot use campaign funds to compensate themselves for services provided to their own committee. Expenditures made to a family member of the candidate for services provided to the campaign shall be no more than customary compensation for those services. Expenditures made to reimburse a candidate for personal expenditures made on behalf of the candidate committee must be made within ninety (90) days of the original expenditure and must be reported in detail as required by Rule 2.106.

Increase Electioneering Window

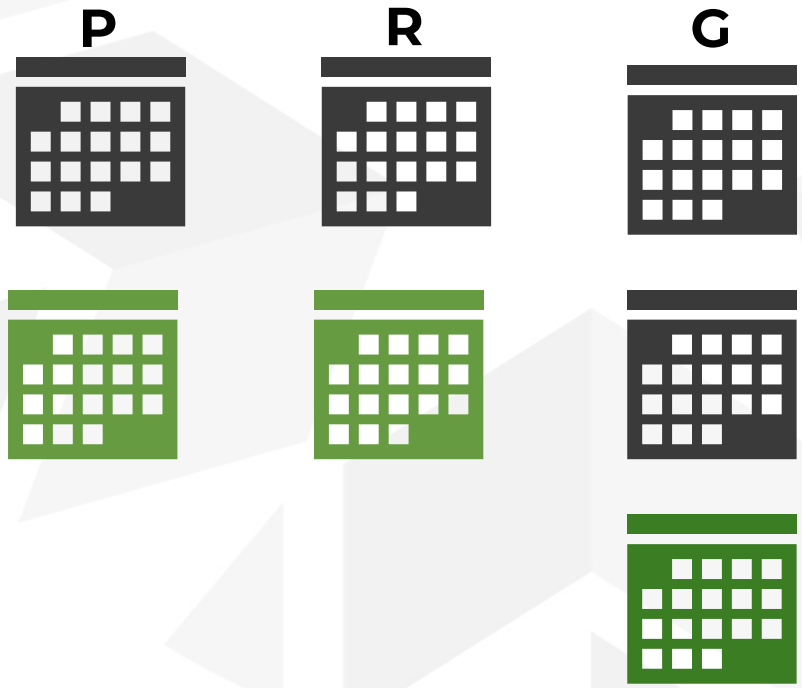

Amending Ethics Rule 2.2 – Expanding Electioneering Communication Reporting Window

Proposal: Expanding window for reporting electioneering by 30 days (Rules 2.2, 4.2, and 5.2)

Amended text: "(b) is made within sixty (60) days before a general election (including a special general election), ~~or thirty (30) days before~~ a primary or runoff primary election"

OR

"(b) is made within ~~sixty (60)~~ ninety (90) days before a general election (including a special general election) or ~~thirty (30)~~ sixty (60) days before a primary or runoff primary election

Revising Rule 2.2 – Adding Synthetic Media Definition

- Proposal: Amend Ethics Rule 2.2 Definitions to add "Synthetic Media".

  - Option 1

    21. "Synthetic Media" refers to content - including images, video, audio, and text - that is wholly or partially generated, modified, or enhanced by generative intelligence, machine learning or comparable techniques or methods.

  - Option 2

    21. "Synthetic Media" means an image, text, audio recording or video recording of a scenario or individual's appearance, speech or conduct that has been intentionally manipulated with the use of artificial intelligence generative intelligence, machine learning or comparable techniques or methods in a manner to create a realistic but false image, text, audio recording or video recording in a manner that is likely to deceive a reasonable person.

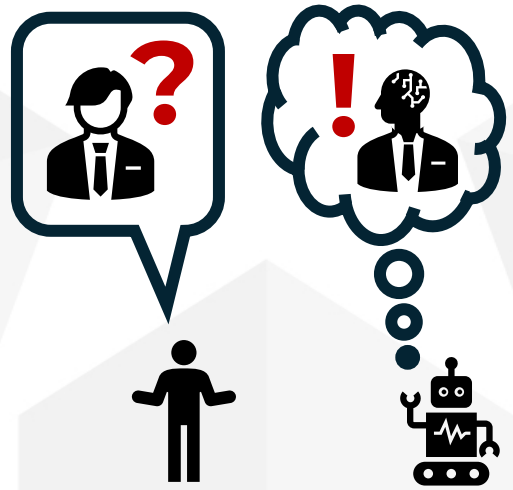

Commission Comment in Ethics Rule 2.2

- "Synthetic Media" includes material that may produce:
  - A) A depiction that a reasonable person would believe is of a real scenario or individual in appearance, speech or conduct but that did not actually occur in reality;

    and

  - (B) A materially different understanding or impression than a reasonable person would have from the unaltered, original version of the image, audio recording or video recording.

Definition and Disclosure of Synthetic Media

Adding Rule 2.59 – Adding Disclosure Requirement for Synthetic Media

- Proposal: New Ethics Rule 2.59 that requires Disclosure when Synthetic Media is used in Political Communications.

- Option 1

  Require basic disclosure related to both positive and negative campaign media, and a label that the piece of media has been manipulated.

- Option 2

  Require more detailed disclosure for only negative campaign media pieces, that also restricts political activity by officials, and states that the piece of media appears to be misleading.

- This rule does not apply to:
  - Satire or Parody
  - The Distributor of the Synthetic Media (only the Creator / Buyer of the Synthetic Media)

- Rule numbers would be moved one down if this is adopted

Definition and Disclosure of Synthetic Media

Adding Rule 2.59 – Adding Disclosure Requirement for Synthetic Media

New Ethics Rule 2.59 - Option 1:

Any communication made or paid for by a person, organization, candidate, campaign committee, political action committee, or political party that is made in support of or opposition to a candidate, group of candidates or political party, that provides information about political or social issues with the intent to influence the outcome of an election or that solicits contributions for a candidate, group of candidates or political party and includes any form of synthetic media in the communication must disclose on the communication in a clear and conspicuous manner:

"This (image/text/video/audio/etc.) has been manipulated."

Such disclosure shall be clear and conspicuous and of sufficient audio, size, and contrast to be clearly understandable or readable by the recipient of the communication. This disclosure should be taken as "in addition to" and does not negate any other disclosure requirements provided under law.

Definition and Disclosure of Synthetic Media

Adding Rule 2.59 – Adding Disclosure Requirement for Synthetic Media

New Ethics Rule 2.59 - Option 2:

Any communication made or paid for by a person, organization, candidate, campaign committee, political action committee, or political party that is made in opposition to a candidate, group of candidates or political party, that provides information about political or social issues with the intent to influence the outcome of an election, political activity by elected official(s), or that solicits contributions for a candidate, group of candidates or political party and includes any form of synthetic media in the communication must disclose on the communication in a clear and conspicuous manner:

"This (image/text/video/audio/etc.) has been manipulated and depicts material that falsely appears to be authentic or truthful."

Such disclosure shall be clear and conspicuous and of sufficient audio, size, and contrast to be clearly understandable or readable by the recipient of the communication. This disclosure should be taken as "in addition to" and does not negate any other disclosure requirements provided under law.

Dark Money Correspondence

Revising Rule 2.107 and 2.108

- Proposal: Require timely response from report filers.

  - (C) Each report filed by a person other than a political action committee shall include the name and address of the person making the independent expenditure / electioneering communication and the name, street address, telephone number, and office or title of the individual filing the report. The person filing the report shall timely respond to all Commission correspondence, any Commission request for information, documentation, subpoenas and any other communication from the Commission.

Gift Limits for Executive Lobbyists

Removing Rule 5.11

- Proposal: Remove Rule 5.11 to match the previous Removal of Rule 5.08, so that the Rules on gifts from Lobbyists is the same for both Legislative and Executive.

- 5.11. Gift Limits for Executive Lobbyist.

- Previously: Executive Lobbyists were allowed to give gifts of up to $200 for "Special Occasions" that occurred less often than yearly, such as getting married, or having a child.

- Suggested Removal: Legislative and Executive Lobbyists both could now give gifts, up to the $750 limit for gifts and food provided to a recipient yearly.
