Thlopthlocco Tribal Town
c/o Town King Ryan Morrow

Re: Tobacco tax compact

Dear Town King Morrow,

It is my sincere hope that this letter paves the way toward an agreement that will benefit all 4 million Oklahomans.

As you know, the tobacco tax compact between the State of Oklahoma and the Thlopthlocco Tribal Town is scheduled to expire December 31, 2023. As I have stated publicly this week, the extension offer I have made on the State's behalf to all tribes who have reached out to my office remains available to the Thlopthlocco Tribal Town. The material terms of the offer are as follows: 1) a one year extension through December 31, 2024; 2) a continued 50/50 apportionment of taxes on tobacco sales within the compact jurisdiction; 3) status quo compact jurisdiction boundaries (i.e., lands owned by the tribe and/or its members which are held in trust by the United States, or which are owned by members of the tribe and are subject to restricted title); and 4) elimination of the unilateral termination provision for purposes of the one year extension.

I extend this offer in good faith and remain steadfast in my belief that we must find common ground to move our state forward. If the Thlopthlocco Tribal Town accepts, my team will expeditiously prepare and send to you a signed compact extension.

If you would like to discuss the offer, please do not hesitate to contact me or my general counsel, Trevor Pemberton. We look forward to hearing from you.

Respectfully,
