

Ted Perry Bio

Ted Perry was born and raised in Oklahoma City. He attended Heritage Hall High School before attending the United States Military Academy at West Point where he graduated in 2005 with a degree in Economics and a minor in Civil Engineering.

After West Point, Ted's active military career of 7 years included 2 combat tours in Iraq. During his first tour, he was with the First Cavalry Division in East Baghdad & Sadr City. He served as a Fire Support Officer, an Infantry Executive Officer and an Infantry Company Commander while deployed. During that time, he was shot by an enemy sniper and received the Purple Heart, the Combat Action Badge and numerous other awards and decorations. After rehabbing his injuries, he deployed with the First Infantry Division to Tikrit, Iraq as an Artillery Battalion S3. During his deployments, Ted participated in, planned & executed over 700 ground combat missions.

After Ted completed his military service, he graduated from OSU with an MBA in 2013. Ted then went on to work at the Private Bank of Bank of Oklahoma as a private banker and wealth advisor for 3 years before founding his own private equity company, Cavalry Capital, where they provide alternative investments for investors in oil & gas ventures as well as commercial & residential real estate.

Ted is a firm believer in the importance of community service and gives his time and gifts as a board member for U.S Senator James Lankford's and U.S. Congressman Stephanie Bice's Military Academy nominations, the President of the Heritage Hall Alumni Association, the Founding President of the Sunbeam Young Professionals Board, a committee member for the Wes Welker Foundation, a committee member for the Fields & Futures Foundation, a committee member for the Cleats for Kids Foundation, a board member for the West Point Society of Oklahoma, and a girls basketball coach for the Police Athletic League. Ted is also a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the Military Order of the Purple Heart, the American Legion, Leadership Oklahoma City and founded Men's Business Exchange.

Ted is also a high school football coach at Heritage Hall and a travel agency owner in his free time. As a coach and a player, Ted has been a member of 7 state championship teams. He lives with his wife, Brooke, at Lake Hiwassee in Arcadia, OK.
