COMMISSIONER’S REPORT

Gary Cox, Commissioner of Health, thanked the Avedis Foundation for the use of their facility for this meeting.

Mr. Cox stated that he looks forward to meeting with the board members individually in their home towns and working collaboratively to build community partnerships. He informed the board of some agency reorganization which included reducing the number of direct reports to the Commissioner and forming a smaller executive team.

This executive team has identified $9 million in efficiencies and those funds will be directed toward the counties.

Mr. Cox emphasized the Governor’s goal of becoming a top ten state and declared it is possible for Oklahoma but will require a lot of work. He shared some current OSDH projects which include the state health information exchange and the electronic health records system. He touched on the Governor’s priorities which include childhood obesity, cardiovascular disease, immunizations, HIV, and reducing government regulations. Mr. Cox discussed that staff will be looking at the public health system/model of delivering services in Oklahoma and will ensure that OSDH delivers services that meet each communities’ needs.

REGULATION, PREVENTION AND PREPAREDNESS
Mr. Rocky McElvany, Deputy Commissioner, shared an accomplishment in his area where the OSDH contracted with BankFirst for payment processing and application scanning for the annual renewal of 37,000 nurse aide licenses. This endeavor reduced the processing time from four days to one day and improved record management. In regard to regulations, he also mentioned an effective partnership where OSDH staff worked with Assisted Living, Residential Care, and Adult Day Care facilities to develop a statute revision to allow for a 3-year license renewal cycle. This change would reduce the paperwork burden on both providers and the OSDH. Also, agency staff have been collaborating with the Alzheimer’s Association, and related dementia facilities, to create a website, accessible to the public, with helpful information about the services those facilities provide. In regard to preparedness activities, Mr. McElvany revealed that Oklahoma is currently experiencing a statewide outbreak of syphilis. The OSDH has responded to this outbreak with a variety of efforts including increasing the number of disease intervention specialists (DIS) to conduct investigations, creating a statewide task force to identify needs, and distributing educational resources for providers across the state. In addition, there was a discussion on the current influenza season in Oklahoma and the importance of educating others on how to prevent exposure such as staying home when feeling ill.

COMMUNITY HEALTH SERVICES
Mr. Keith Reed, Deputy Commissioner, explained that Community Health Services (CHS) has done some reorganizing and consolidating of services. He stated the number of Regional Directors has been reduced from fourteen to nine. With the administrative changes that were made, CHS was able to reinvest the savings in current staff salaries, as well as, hire some community epidemiologists, strategic health planners, and health promotion staff in each district across the state. Mr. Reed shared the key points of the reorganization serves to strengthen the local public health system with broader public health expertise and utilize resources that will allow for a continuous, sustainable program of community engagement. Looking ahead, CHS plans to expand services in the counties by implementing additional programs such as mobile clinics, chronic disease screenings and after-school programs, just to name a few.

OPERATIONS
Mrs. Kim Bailey, Chief Operating Officer, provided an overview of her service areas. First, she shared results of a study conducted by the Governor’s office that measured state employee job satisfaction and engagement. The survey results indicated overall 77% of state employees are engaged in their jobs and 73% are satisfied. The health department’s survey results reflected a similar response. Currently, Human Resources (HR) is working to reduce the turnover rate. HR staff has also focused on customer service, streamlining processes, and have experienced a significant increase in effectiveness and efficiency in filling positions. Next, she shared the finance staff continues to work with Ernst & Young and OMES to ensure the OSDH gets the most updated PeopleSoft financial, budget, and contract management systems. Once all of these systems are fully implemented the finance data and processes will improve creating more efficiencies. Informatics staff is working to bridge health and technology. They are moving forward in automating Office 365, the Master Person Index System, and HIPAA privacy and security. Vital Records has been focusing on providing more online services. Building Management has installed a new roof over the public health lab wing and have had the building windows cleaned. They have reorganized the housekeeping staff and budgeted for emergency maintenance. Last, Mrs. Bailey stated that Internal Services has been very successful in decluttering the premises by recycling over 6,000 pounds of scrap metal, sending 30 pallets of various items to public auction, shredding 38 pallets of files, and receiving approval to destroy many cubic feet of on-site items.

POLICY AND COMMUNICATIONS
Ms. Jackie Shawnee, Chief of Staff, discussed how communications, policy, and planning will operate in a supportive role to OSDH programs both internally and externally with a focus on customer service. Staff is developing a cross-cutting strategic plan that will ensure efficiencies and effectiveness. Some software was purchased that will allow for simplicity and a dashboard view of the strategic plan process. There is ongoing quality assurance work looking at not only processes but the agency culture to ensure productivity. In regard to policy, Ms. Shawnee explained that the Governor is calling for all sister state agencies to brainstorm and work together to find better ways to do business. In relation to communications, she emphasized the primary job of conveying the value of public health to stakeholders, partners and citizens. She mentioned the Lieutenant Governor will be revealing a new statewide logo/branding in about a month. She welcomed the guidance of the board members in the policy planning process and encouraged collaborations to build relationships and partnerships in the communities in which they live.

Next, Ms. Shawnee introduced Mrs. Ashley Scott, Legislative Liaison, who highlighted some OSDH policy pursuits for 2020. Mrs. Scott relayed that staff is working on statute changes to assist with the county health department restructuring. She indicated staff is working on Tobacco-21 and clean indoor air. She mentioned they are working with a variety of external partners to support legislation that would allow for harm reduction efforts. She noted proposed rule changes for military license reciprocity and criminal justice reform. She also reported that staff will be looking at ways to reduce government regulation. In addition, there is an immunizations regulation that will change the exemption process for the county health departments. Finally, Mrs. Scott informed board members that she will be contacting each of them to learn their legislative interests.

OSDH FINANCIAL PRESENTATION
Ms. Gloria Hudson, Chief Financial Officer, provided an update of the financial statements as of November 2019. Currently, the agency’s total revenues are running under budget by 18% and total expenditures are running under budget by 46%. She shared a new financial statement of revenues and expenditures that compares SFY 2019 to SFY 2020. She prepared another new financial statement of expenditures showing the four new cost centers which are Protective and Regulatory Services, Data, Policy and Communications, Community Health Services, and Operations. Based on revenue and expenditure projections through the year end, the CSDH is expected to end the year with a positive $53.4 million. In closing, Ms. Hudson indicated to the board that if there are additional financial documents they would like to see, please let her know.
