Influenza-Associated Hospitalizations by Week of Positive Influenza Test, Oklahoma, Comparison of the 2019-2020‡, 2020-2021*, and 2021-2022† Seasons

Week ending July 2, 2022

These units correspond to the number of weeks in a year and allow for comparison between multiple seasons.

‡Total number of hospitalizations for the 2019-2020 season is 3,580. The season had an initial wave of influenza B followed by a second wave of influenza A H1N2.

*Total number of hospitalizations to date for the 2020-2021 season is 287. This season was characterized by COVID-19 mitigation which contributed to a low Influenza Season.

†Total number of hospitalizations for the 2021-2022 season to date is 1,205.