NAME CHANGES

If a change to the name of the subject of the birth record has occurred as a result of legal action, the person requesting the birth record must identify in the place marked "full name at birth" the current legally altered name of the subject of the birth record, and that name must agree with the information that now appears on the certificate. If a change needs to be made to the record, complete the request with the information that currently appears on the certificate and attach a letter specifying the changes. (Additional Instructions will be mailed once the request has been reviewed.)

AVAILABLE RECORDS

Oklahoma began filing death records in October of 1908; however, filing did not become mandatory until 1917. Prior to 1940 filing continued to be somewhat sporadic, which may prove problematic for families who are requesting records for genealogy purposes.

OPEN RECORDS

Effective Nov 1, 2014, records of births occurring at least 125 years ago are open record and do not require proof of eligibility.

SUBJECT OF THE BIRTH RECORD IS DECEASED

If the subject of the original Certificate of Birth is deceased, the birth record will be marked with a notation indicating that the subject of the record is deceased.

HEIRLOOM BIRTH CERTIFICATES

$35 fee includes one certified copy of the birth record in addition to one Heirloom certificate. The Heirloom Birth Certificate is 8 1/2 x 11" with a chocolate brown and mint green color palette bearing a depiction of a Redbud, the state tree. The certificate will reflect the child's name, date of birth, gender, place of birth and the names of the parents.

GENEALOGY AND RESEARCH RECORDS

OK2Explore is a free searchable index of births and deaths that occurred in the state of Oklahoma. This includes records of births occurring in Oklahoma 20 or more years ago and records of deaths occurring in Oklahoma five (5) or more years ago.
