

Oklahoma State Department of Health Tribal Listening Session

AGENDA

Hosted by the Absentee Shawnee Tribal Health System
February 13, 2017
10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

*Li-Si-Wi-Nwi Health Clinic
15951 Little Axe Drive
Norman, OK 73026*

PURPOSE

The Oklahoma State Department of Health invites tribal leaders, elders and health facilities staff to attend a critical tribal listening session regarding a proposal to modernize Oklahoma's health insurance marketplace through the use of a 1332 waiver while protecting the Indian Health Care Improvement Act provisions currently embedded within the Affordable Care Act (ACA).

AGENDA

- I. Welcome
Mark Rogers, Executive Director, Absentee Shawnee Tribal Health System
- II. Introductions and Opening Remarks
Julie Cox-Kain, Senior Deputy Commissioner of Health and Deputy Secretary of Health and Human Services
- III. Overview and Discussion: Indian Health Care Improvement Act
Julie Cox-Kain, Buffy Heater and Melissa Gower, Senior Advisor Policy Analyst, Chickasaw Nation
- IV. Overview and Discussion: 1332 State Innovation Waiver Concept Paper
Julie Cox-Kain and Buffy Heater, Health and Human Services Strategy Officer
- V. Closing Remarks and Adjournment
Mark Rogers

Sally Carter, MSW, LCSW | Tribal Liaison | Office of the Tribal Liaison

Oklahoma State Department of Health | 1000 NE 10th Street | Oklahoma City, OK 73117-1299

Phone: 405.271.5170 | Cell: 405.255.9306 | www.health.ok.gov | Vision: Creating a State of Health