DISASTER PREPAREDNESS

When a disaster happens, there is no time to suddenly “prepare” for the unexpected. Staying safe depends on knowing what to do before a disaster occurs

Who Can Volunteer? Community Volunteers

The Oklahoma MRC needs volunteers with a diversity of talents, experience and skills who can assist with

- ★ Communication
- ★ Security
- ★ Translations
- ★ Clergy
- ★ Transportation
- ★ Public Works
- ★ Administrative

Medical Volunteers

The Oklahoma MRC is designed to bring together practicing and retired healthcare professionals including:

- ★ Physicians
- ★ Nurses
- ★ Pharmacists
- ★ Veterinarians
- ★ Dentists
- ★ Paramedics / EMTs
- ★ Medical Professionals
- ★ Hospital Employees

The Oklahoma Medical Reserve Corps (OKMRC) provides medical and public health professionals, as well as dedicated citizens, an organized system for volunteering during a large-scale emergency such as a pandemic, chemical spill or act of terrorism. In addition, OKMRC volunteers work to improve the overall health and well-being of their communities by engaging in public health initiatives throughout the year.
