A Stephen Minister is compassionate, full of faith, skilled, trustworthy providing a high level of confidentiality in the relationship. Stephen Ministers are specially trained to listen, care, encourage, and support people who are going through tough times such as loneliness, experiencing grief over the loss of a loved one or other types of losses, retirement changes, unemployment, discouragement, childbirth, hospitalization, divorce, terminal illness, being a shut-in and questions about God and faith.

Stephen Ministers will meet once a week with a care receiver for about an hour to listen, care, encourage, and pray for the care receiver. The Stephen Minister brings Christ's presence into the person's life; Stephen Ministry is God's Love in Action. A Stephen Minister receives 50 hours of initial training to provide one-to-one care to their care receivers; they will meet twice a month with Stephen Leaders for supervision, support and continuing education.
