110th CONGRESS

1st Session

S. 6

To enhance the security of the United States by reducing the dependence of the United States on foreign and unsustainable energy sources and the risks of global warming, and for other purposes.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

January 4, 2007

Mr. REID (for himself, Mr. BINGAMAN, Mrs. BOXER, Mr. SCHUMER, Mr. LIEBERMAN, Mr. LAUTENBERG, Ms. CANTWELL, Mr. LEAHY, Ms. STABENOW, Mr. WEBB, Mr. SALAZAR, and Mr. MENENDEZ) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Finance

A BILL

To enhance the security of the United States by reducing the dependence of the United States on foreign and unsustainable energy sources and the risks of global warming, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the `National Energy and Environmental Security Act of 2007'.

SEC. 2. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

It is the sense of Congress that Congress should enact, and the President should sign, legislation to enhance the security of the United States by reducing the dependence of the United States on foreign and unsustainable energy sources and the risks of global warming by--

- (1) requiring reductions in emissions of greenhouse gases;
- (2) diversifying and expanding the use of secure, efficient, and environmentally-friendly energy supplies and technologies;
- (3) reducing the burdens on consumers of rising energy prices;
- (4) eliminating tax giveaways to large energy companies; and
- (5) preventing energy price gouging, profiteering, and market manipulation.
