Instructions for Filing a Wage Claim Form

The Oklahoma Department of Labor (ODOL) serves as an advocate for Oklahoma's workforce. ODOL labor compliance officers investigate the validity of wage claims and, if warranted, will issue orders demanding payment on behalf of employees. For more information about Oklahoma wage laws, access the ODOL website at www.labor.ok.gov.

Please read and follow the instructions below:

- To assist the ODOL process your claim and to expedite our investigation, you must have asked your employer for the wages you believe are due you before completing and filing this form with ODOL.
- This form must be filled in completely. Be thorough when explaining your claim including all dates related to your claim.
- This claim form must be signed or it will be returned to you, causing a delay in processing your claim. You can personally return or mail your completed claim form to the office of the Oklahoma Department of Labor (3017 N Stiles Ave, Ste 100 Oklahoma City, OK 73105).
- Your employer will be notified via Priority Mail of your complaint and must respond in writing to your investigating officer within 15 calendar days of receipt of the claim. This response period may be extended by your investigative officer for good cause. We must have a valid mailing address for the business you are filing your claim against in order to process your claim.
- Attach any documents (i.e. time sheets, company policy, prior pay stubs, etc.) if available to avoid any delays in processing time.
