

Oklahoma Department of Libraries

Free Delivery with your Library Card

Using your ODL library card, employees of all three branches of state government have access to the state library's collection of books, DVDs, audiobooks, and more.

Starting July 1, your state library will begin a six-month pilot project offering free delivery every Friday to any cardholder working in the Capitol Complex.

Just select your items from ODL's online Catalog—oklahoma.gov/libraries/catalog—at anytime and they'll be held for delivery at the end of the week.

Need a library card? Please fill out the application on our website at oklahoma.gov/libraries/card-app. We will mail the card to you and inform you when you can start using our services.

Take advantage of our newest service. We are ready to assist with your information needs.

* Please note that during the pilot program, delivery service will be available only at select agencies.
