

ODL YOUTH SERVICES IMPORTANT THINGS: JANUARY!

YOUTH LIBRARY PROGRAM WORKSHOPS

Starting in February, we are planning workshops for collaboration and summer preparation. These will be in person in four regional areas, plus one at ODL. Plan to dig deep into summer, with all of our goals, objectives, and how we can continue to increase our impact on the youth of our communities! We will run from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. with an hour(ish) lunch break. More info here

SCHEDULE AND REGISTRATION

- February 6, Antlers Public Library
- February 11, ODL
- February 21, Poteau
- February 24, Tulsa
- March 6, Lawton
- March 20, Woodward

Note the corrected dates! ODL newsletter had a mixup.

COLOR OUR WORLD WITH SCIENCE!

Starnet is back with another workshop opportunity for libraries planning summer activities! Join in to explore how science, space, STEM, and the natural world align with the Color Our World theme for 2025. The webinar is free, on February 4 at 1-2 p.m. Register at the link below.

MONTHLY ZOOM MEETINGS

Also coming in February, we will begin our monthly Zoom times! These one hour meetups will include learning modules (CE credit available!) opportunities to become better acquainted with other youth library staff across the state, free books (and other stuff!) and idea sharing. No need to register! Just join the Zoom link! (First Monday of the month, 2 p.m.)

MONTHLY ZOOMS, INPUT NEEDED!

We want our monthly times together to be the most useful for everyone! Please fill out this quick survey regarding the topics you will find most needed for these meetings.
