K. Glazier reviewed with Board Members the Dashboard Report (attachment #6) of agency statistical data and quality indicators for the second quarter of fiscal year 2013.

Board Members were updated on implementation of the Federal criminal history check fingerprinting program and the Office of Management and Enterprise Services Information Technology services-related difficulties encountered during the process.

The requested audit of the agency by the State Auditor and Inspector's Office is underway, which is to include the normal audit of the agency's financial processes, and will also encompass the Information Technology consolidation process.

An update was provided to Board members regarding the agency's data integrity project for discipline data reported to federal databanks.

The mileage reimbursement rate for travel increased from 0.555 to 0.565, effective January 1, 2013.

K. Glazier reviewed with the Board legislation which may impact the agency and J. Ward provided an update on progress with regard to HB 1461.
