BACKGROUND

Oklahoma Attorney General Gentner Drummond is partnering with the Rogers County Sheriff's Office and the Creek County Sheriff's Office to hold Smith accountable for his actions.

Smith served approximately five years of 20-year prison term for a sex crime involving a minor before he was paroled. An application to revoke that parole was filed in 2020, as he has failed to maintain a valid address for the Sex Offender Registry.

Smith has prior convictions in Illinois for burglary and theft.
