

CHAPTER 20. ADDRESS CONFIDENTIALITY PROGRAM

Editor's Note: Effective 7-1-08, the rules in this Chapter were transferred from Chapter 30 in the Secretary of State's Title 655 [OAC 655:30-1-1 through 655:30-1-15]. Pursuant to House Bill 2638 (2008), "rules promulgated by the Office of the Secretary of State to implement [the Address Confidentiality Program] shall be transferred to and become part of the administrative rules of the Office of the Attorney General. . . . Such rules shall continue in force and effect as rules of the Office of the Attorney General from and after July 1, 2008, and any amendment, repeal, or addition to transferred rules shall be under the jurisdiction of the Attorney General" [House Bill 2638 (2008)]. As directed by HB 2638, an Editor's Notice was published in the Oklahoma Register [see 25 Ok Reg 2607], announcing the transfer of the rules from OAC 655:30 to this Chapter [OAC 75:20], and identifying the new location in this Chapter of each transferred rule. For additional information relating to this transfer, see House Bill 2638 (2008).

75:20-1-4. Application assistants

(a) Prior to being designated as an application assistant, an individual must:

- (1) Attend required training sessions provided by the ACP;
- (2) Agree to adhere to the policies, procedures, and directions provided by the ACP for rendering assistance to program applicants; and
- (3) Complete and sign an application assistant agreement form.

(b) Upon completion of the training process, the ACP will notify the application assistant of such designation.

(c) Designation as an application assistant is valid for two (2) years.

(d) The application assistant agrees not to discriminate against any client, or potential ACP participant, because of race, creed, color, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, age, or mental, physical or sensory disability.

(e) An application assistant is not deemed to be an employee of the Office nor an agent of the Office in any manner whatsoever. An application assistant shall not hold himself or herself out as, nor claim to be an officer or employee of the Office or the State of Oklahoma and shall not make any claim, demand, or application to or for any right or privilege applicable to an officer or employee of the Office or of the State of Oklahoma.

(f) In the event an application assistant no longer wishes to be designated as such or leaves his or her present position, the application assistant shall provide written notification to the ACP Program Manager.

(g) An application assistant's designation may be canceled by the Office for failing to abide by the requirements set forth in this section or for failing to act in accordance with the Address Confidentiality Program requirements.

75:20-1-5. Application, certification, and renewal

(a) Application required. Any person who meets the criteria for certification and wishes to apply to be a program participant shall complete an application packet. The packet includes the ACP application and a Program Agreement.

(b) Request for application packet. Any person who wishes to apply to be a program participant may obtain from an application assistant at a designated agency to assist persons in the application process.

(c) Applicant must file the application packet. To be considered for certification as a program participant, an applicant must file a completed and signed applicaiton packet with the Address Confidentiality Program.

(d) Assistance or counseling with completing application. No assistance or counseling rendered to an applicant during the application process shall in no way be construed by an applicant as legal advice.

(d) Initial certification and term. Only after a completed application is approved by the ACP shall an applicant become a program participant, assigned a substitute address, and issued an authorization card. The card shall include the program participant's name, date of birth, authorization number, substitute mailing address, certification expiration date, and participant's signature. The term of initial certification shall be four (4) years from the date of approval of the complete application.

(e) Eligible participants. The following persons shall be eligible to apply as a program participant in the ACP:

- (1) An adult escaping from actual or threatened domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, human trafficking, or child abduction;
- (2) An adult residing with an ACP applicant who has been the victim or potential victim of domestic violence, sexual assault,

stalking, human trafficking, or child abduction;

(3) A minor residing with an ACP applicant who has been the victim or potential victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, human trafficking, or child abduction; and

(4) Any incapacitated person who applies by and through a guardian.

(f) Separate applications required for adults. An adult who is not the target of actual or threatened domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, human trafficking, or child abduction residing with an ACP applicant must submit a separate application to be a program participant.

(g) Applications submitted for minors. A parent or guardian of a minor may submit an application on the minor's behalf.

(h) Criteria for certification. To be an eligible program participant in the Address Confidentiality Program, a person must meet the following criteria:

(1) Demonstrate that he or she seeks protection from actual or threatened domestic violence, sexual assault, human sex trafficking, or stalking,

(2) Fears for his or her safety or the safety of other household members;

(3) Recently established a residential address in Oklahoma unknown to the assailant or probable assailant or is planning to move in the imminently; and

(4) Agrees to all of the terms in the Program Agreement checklist.

(i) Renewal of certification. A program participant may renew his or her program certification for additional four-year term by filing the following information with the ACP:

75:20-1-9. Certification withdrawal or cancellation

(a) Voluntary withdrawal of participation. An ACP participant may withdraw from the ACP by submitting written notice of withdrawal and his or her current authorization card to the Office. The withdrawal will be effective on the day of receipt of the notification by the Office.

(b) Mandatory cancellation. The ACP Program Manager shall cancel a program participant's certification and invalidate his or her authorization card if:

- (1) An ACP participant's certification term has expired and a renewal application has not been filed within fourteen (14) days after the term expired;
- (2) An ACP participant knowingly provided false or misleading information when applying for certification; or
- (3) A program participant obtains a name change.

(c) Discretionary cancellation. At the discretion of the Attorney General, the ACP Program Manager may cancel a program participant's certification for any of the following reasons:

- (1) The program participant no longer resides at the residential address listed on the application and has not provided written notice within seven (7) days after the change in address has occurred;
- (2) Mail forwarded to an ACP participant is returned non-deliverable or unclaimed.
- (3) An ACP participant has failed to abide by the requirements of the Program Agreement and has been notified in writing two (2) times at the last known mailing or residential address of the failures to abide by the agreement.

(d) Notification of cancellation. The ACP shall attempt to notify the participant of the cancellation in writing at the last known mailing or residential address, by phone, email, or other method of electronic communication.

75:20-1-12. Voter registration

- (a) Registering as an ACP voter. An ACP participant who is otherwise qualified to vote may register to vote as an ACP participant voter through the State Election Board in accordance with OAC 230:15.
- (b) Voting by absentee ballot only. ACP participants who become registered as ACP participant voters may vote only by absentee ballot. ACP participant voters will receive absentee ballots by mail at the participant's substitute address for all local, state and national elections in which the participant is eligible to vote.
- (c) Confidentiality of ACP participant voter records. All records pertaining to an ACP participant voter shall be maintained in a manner ensuring these records are accessible only to authorized personnel and shall not be publicly accessible. The name, address, precinct number, and absentee ballots of any ACP participant voter shall not be released to any person for any purpose except by court order. Additionally, the name, address, precinct number, and absentee ballots of any ACP participant voter shall not appear on any list or report produced by either the State Election Board or a county election board.

(d) ACP notifications to the State Election Board. The ACP shall notify the State Election Board when one or more of the following occurs:

- (1) An ACP participant's certification has expired;
- (2) An ACP participant's certification has been withdrawn or canceled;
- (3) An ACP participant's absentee ballot is returned non-deliverable; or
- (4) An ACP participant's residential address changes.

75:20-1-14. Agency exemption

(a) Request for exemption by agency. An agency requesting an exemption under Title 22, Section 60.14(F) of the Oklahoma Statutes must provide in writing to the Office of Attorney General the following:

- (1) Identification of the federal or state statute or administrative rule that demonstrates the agency's bona fide requirement and authority for the use of the actual address of the participant;
- (2) Identification and description of the specific record for which the exemption is requested;

(3) Identification of the individual(s) who will have access to the record;

(4) An explanation of how the acceptance of a substitute address will prevent the agency from meeting its obligations under the statute or rule identified above; and

(5) An explanation of why the agency cannot meet its statutory or administrative obligations by a change in its internal procedures.

(b) ACP determination. The determination of the Office to grant or deny a request for exemption will be based on, but not limited to, an evaluation of the information provided under this section.

(c) Issuance of exemption. If the Office determines that an agency has a bona fide federal or state statutory or administrative requirement for the use of a program participant's actual address and that the address will be used only for those statutory and administrative purposes, the Office may issue a written exemption for the agency. The written exemption may include:

(1) An agency's obligation to maintain the confidentiality of a program participant's address;

(2) Limitations on the use and access to the address;

(3) Term during which the exemption is authorized for the agency;

(4) Designation of the record format on which the address information may be maintained;

(5) Designation of an address information disposition date after which the agency may no longer maintain a record of the address information.

(6) Any provisions and qualifications determined appropriate by the Office.

(d) Denial of exemption. The denial by the Office of an agency exemption request shall be made in writing and include a statement of the specific reasons therefore.

(e) Maintenance of records. The Office shall keep a record of all exemptions and all documentation relating to requests for exemption.
