3. Law Firms agree that they will not undertake any such representation if the subject of the other representation is related to the specific matter in which Law Firms currently represent the State. Should Law Firms intend to engage in the representation of a client or interest that is adverse to the Attorney General, Law Firms agree to immediately notify the Attorney General of their intention to engage in such representation. In its discretion, the Attorney General may object to Law Firms' representation of a client or interest that is adverse to the Attorney General, and such objection may be grounds for immediate termination of this Contract.

In the course of representing the State, and in order fully to satisfy Law Firms' professional obligations, Law Firms may from time to time need to consult with the lawyers in their firms responsible for advising their firms on ethical issues, including issues that may implicate the State's interests. The parties acknowledge and agree that, notwithstanding this potential for conflict in consideration of Law Firms' professional obligations, Law Firms are free to consult with their own internal counsel on such matters without the State's consent and that such consultations are privileged and confidential.

5. Inability to Perform: Law Firms agree that if, because of death or any other occurrence beyond the control of Law Firms, it becomes impossible for any principal or principals, and in particular the principals assigned to this project, to render the services set forth in this Contract, neither Law Firms nor the surviving principals shall be relieved of their obligations to complete performance hereunder. Law Firms shall, with respect to any replacement principal proposed to be assigned to this matter, consult with the Attorney General. The Attorney General's consent to the proposed replacement is required, but may not be withheld unreasonably.
6. Outside Communications: The parties agree that neither Law Firms, nor any partner, associate, employee, or any other person assisting with the services to be performed under this Contract, shall publish any material, including on-line publications, or speak to or otherwise communicate with any representative of a television station, radio station, newspaper, magazine, website, or any other media outlet concerning the work outlined or contemplated by this Contract without first obtaining approval of the Attorney General, the Attorney General's Communications Director, or their designee. Law Firms shall not state or imply in any manner, including in commercial advertising, that their services are endorsed by the State. The State may not be used as a reference for Law Firms without the State's prior approval.
7. Additional Counsel, Subcontracting, Key Personnel, Experts, and Consultants: Any retention of experts or consultants, subcontracting, or assignment of services and work covered by this Contract shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Contract, which shall apply to, and bind the party or parties to whom such work is subcontracted or assigned as fully and completely as Law Firms are hereby bound and obligated, including obligations with respect to confidentiality and conflicts of interest. In furtherance of the services described in Appendix A, Law Firms may recommend to the State subcontractors, experts, consultants, or assignment of services and work as Law Firms believe necessary. Law Firms, with respect to any retention, assignment, or subcontracting of any of the services to be provided under this Contract and/or replacement of key personnel assigned to this matter (which shall include attorneys, paralegals, investigators, experts, and consultants) shall consult with and obtain the consent of the Attorney General. The hourly rates, fees, or other compensation to be paid to such subcontractors, consultants and/or experts shall be subject to the written approval of the Attorney General. Approved compensation of such subcontractors, consultants and/or experts shall be timely submitted to the State as incurred.
8. Notices: Any notice required to be given pursuant to the terms and provisions of this Contract shall be in writing, postage prepaid, and shall be sent by First Class Mail or by courier or electronic transmission with delivery confirmation, to the respective party as set forth below. The notice shall be effective on the date indicated on the postmark.

The Law Firms and their partners are also bound by the applicable rules of professional conduct and other legal, regulatory and professional obligations. APPENDIX "A"

DESCRIPTION OF LEGAL SERVICES TO BE PROVIDED BY LAW FIRMS

The Law Firms shall assist the Attorney General in investigating and pursuing possible legal action related to potential facilitation and distribution of child sexual abuse material ("CSAM") and the sexual exploitation of Oklahoma children.

In the event that the Law Firms recommend legal action, Law Firms shall, on behalf of the State through the Attorney General, file and prosecute a cause of action in an appropriate forum and venue seeking damages and other such relief as may be authorized by law.

APPENDIX "B"

COMPENSATION AND REIMBURSEMENT FOR SERVICES

1. The State has determined that hiring private counsel on a contingency fee basis is in the best interests of the State to ensure adequate resources and expertise in the subject matter are available to prosecute any cases or claims falling within the provisions of Appendix A. The State has also determined that Law Firms are on the list of private attorneys under 74 O.S.2021, § 20i and that Law Firms have met the requirements for being retained as private counsel under section 20i. Law Firms shall be paid a contingency fee based on recovery obtained by the State through settlement or judgment from any action or matter contemplated by this contract. Pursuant to 74 O.S.Supp.2022, § 20i(D), the contingency fee shall not exceed as follows:

Recovery	Percentage
Less than $10,000,000.00	25%
$10,000,000.01-$15,000,000.00	Plus 20% of any amount in this range
$15,000,000.01-$20,000,000.00	Plus 15% of any amount in this range
$20,000,000.01-$25,000,000.00	Plus 10% of any amount in this range
$25,000,000.01 or more	Plus 5% of any amount in this range

Notwithstanding the above recovery fee schedule, the total contingency fee payable shall not exceed $50,000,000.00, excluding any costs and expenses provided by the contract and actually incurred by Law Firms, and regardless of the number of actions or proceedings or number of retained attorneys involved.

2. Law Firms agree to limit their requests for reimbursement of any expenses incurred in travel in accordance with the provisions of the State Travel Reimbursement Act, 74 O.S.2021, § 500.1 et seq.
3. In order to reduce the amount of attorneys' fees due to Law Firms from any judgment, Law Firms will seek to recover the State attorneys' fees from any defendant(s) pursuant to applicable statutes and legal doctrines in the event the State prevails in the litigation as described in Appendix A. If the State receives such an award of fees from the defendant(s), any amount awarded shall be deducted from any fees otherwise due to Law Firms under paragraph 1 of this Appendix.
4. Law Firms shall receive no compensation or cost reimbursement if there is no recovery. Nor shall Law Firms receive additional compensation for any legal action taken or other services rendered to accomplish the collection of any recovery. The Attorney General, in his sole discretion, may agree to settlement of the Litigation that provides only for non-monetary relief. If such a settlement is obtained, the Attorney General agrees to make reasonable efforts to recover an award of attorneys' fees and costs but is in no way obligated to condition settlement upon payment of costs, fees, or any other monetary recovery. The Attorney General shall have sole discretion as to the amount of fees sought and his decision in that regard will be final.

The State and Law Firms will make reasonable efforts to petition the court where the litigation is pending for an order requiring that Law Firms' costs, including non-labor, experts, consultants, and other reimbursable costs, be paid by the defendant(s). Should such an order not be issued, Law Firms' costs shall be reimbursed from the recovery obtained by the State.

If no settlement or award is obtained, whether it be due to dismissal at the direction of the State, a settlement based on non-monetary relief or an adverse result at trial, Law Firms will not be entitled to reimbursement for costs of any kind, except in accordance with this Appendix. In no event shall the State be responsible to advance any of the costs or expenses of the Litigation.

5. Law Firms shall advance, and subject to the limitations of this Appendix, shall be reimbursed for all reasonable, actual, ordinary and necessary direct non-labor costs incurred in fulfilling the terms of the Contract. Non-labor costs include, but are not limited to, costs associated with photocopies, telephone charges, on-line computer assisted legal research, courier delivery services, facsimiles, mileage, transportation costs, court filing fees, service of process fees, deposition costs, and witness fees. No mark-up will be allowed for non-labor costs. Law Firms shall retain, and upon the request of the Attorney General provide, all necessary documentation to support all non-labor costs incurred pursuant to the performance of the Contract.
6. Reimbursement of costs and expenses of another law firm retained by Law Firms shall be the responsibility of Law Firms and not the State. Law Firms agree to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the State against any claim for reimbursement of costs or expenses asserted by other law firm(s) retained by Law Firms.
7. The State shall not be liable to reimburse Law Firms for any costs or expenses advanced or incurred by Law Firms in fulfilling the terms of the Contract unless there is a recovery as described in this Appendix from which such reimbursement may be made or in the event the Attorney General recovers expenses and/or costs as part of any non-monetary relief as described in this Appendix. The State shall not be responsible to advance any of the costs or expenses of the Litigation.
8. In the event of a recovery by way of settlement or judgment, Law Firms shall prepare and submit to the State an itemized computation of the requested fees and costs and in a manner and form acceptable to the State in advance of any payment.
