News from Commissioner Dana Murphy

MEDIA ADVISORY – 2017 OIL AND GAS INSTITUTE

The Oklahoma Corporation Commission's (OCC) 2017 Oil and Gas Institute will be held Friday, September 29 from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at Oklahoma City University Meinders School of Business, 2501 N. Blackwelder Avenue, Oklahoma City.

The Institute is sponsored by the OCC's Energy & Natural Resources Law Section, the Oil and Gas Conservation Division, the Judicial & Legislative Services Division, and the Oklahoma Bar Association.

"The conference offers attorneys, energy professionals and anyone interested the opportunity to keep up with advancements in technology and other significant changes impacting the industry," said Corporation Commission Chairman Dana Murphy. "With all that's happening right now, it's no surprise that this year's Institute is expected to be another sell-out."

Entitled, Expanding Horizons: The New Frontier of Oklahoma Conservation Law, the Institute will cover multiple topics, including recent developments in oil and gas law, the legislative and rulemaking processes, and ethics.
