Re: Statutory Notice - Data Center Customer Ratepayer Protection Act of 2026

Dear Ms. Dunkerley:

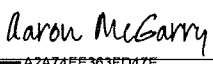

This notice is provided pursuant to the Data Center Customer Ratepayer Protection Act of 2026¹ (the “Act”). The Act requires any “large load customer”, or any developer, owner or entity acting on its behalf, to provide notice within 60 days of purchasing land in Oklahoma that is located outside of an industrial development park or a municipality. A “large load customer” is defined under the Act to include new data centers.

On August 21, 2026, Google LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, purchased property located in Tulsa County, Oklahoma with the intention of developing one or more data centers. The purchased property is located outside of an industrial development park or a municipality.

Notice of the land purchase is being provided to the Oklahoma Corporation Commission, Tulsa County Board of County Commissioners and all adjacent property owners who own land that abuts the purchased property as required under Section 906 of Title 17 of the Oklahoma Statutes, as amended.

Sincerely,

Google LLC

Re: Statutory Notice - Data Center Customer Ratepayer Protection Act of 2026

To Whom it may Concern:

This notice is provided pursuant to the Data Center Customer Ratepayer Protection Act of 2026¹ (the “Act”). The Act requires any “large load customer”, or any developer, owner or entity acting on its behalf, to provide notice within 60 days of purchasing land in Oklahoma that is located outside of an industrial development park or a municipality. A “large load customer” is defined under the Act to include new data centers.

On August 21, 2026, Google LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, purchased property located in Tulsa County, Oklahoma with the intention of developing one or more data centers. The purchased property is located outside of an industrial development park or a municipality.

Notice of the land purchase is being provided to the Oklahoma Corporation Commission, Tulsa County Board of County Commissioners and all adjacent property owners who own land that abuts the purchased property as required under Section 906 of Title 17 of the Oklahoma Statutes, as amended.

Sincerely,

Google LLC
