The Oklahoma Department of Human Services (OKDHS) first became aware of Vincent's case in November 2007 when the OKDHS received a request through the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children (ICPC), an agreement among states that regulates the movement or placement of children from one state to another. Summary of Actions Taken by the Oklahoma Department of Human Services; Actions Taken by the District Attorney; Judicial Proceedings; and the Rulings of the Court:

Letter from Texas DFPS to OKDHS (November 20, 2007)

The OKDHS ICPC unit received a letter, dated November 20, 2007, from the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services (DFPS) regarding one-year-old Vincent Johnson and the possible placement of Vincent with his biological father, Michael Jeffries, in Oklahoma. In the letter, the Texas DFPS provided the OKDHS ICPC with the following information:

Vincent Johnson was taken into Texas DFPS custody on November 29, 2006, due to neglect.

A Texas Child Protective Services (CPS) worker documented on October 18, 2007, that it had been determined that Michael Jeffries, who resided in Oklahoma, was the biological father of Vincent. Texas DFPS began to pursue the possible placement of Vincent with Jeffries. At the time, Vincent and his biological mother were living with Vincent's godparents in Texas.

A hearing was held on November 20, 2007, in Texas, in which Jeffries indicated to the judge that he wanted custody of Vincent. Jeffries was enlisted in the U.S. Army at the time and told the court that he intended to marry in the near future. At the time of the hearing, Vincent's biological mother was incarcerated in a Texas county jail because of arrest warrants.

At the November 20 hearing, a request was made to expedite an ICPC home study in Oklahoma and a court order was issued for the pursuance of an ICPC placement of Vincent with Jeffries in Oklahoma.

Texas ICPC Request for Parent Home Study (November 21, 2007)

On November 29, 2007, the OKDHS ICPC unit received correspondence dated November 21, 2007, from the Texas DFPS requesting the Oklahoma ICPC unit to conduct an initial home study on Jeffries. The OKDHS denied the request on December 28, 2007, and documented the reason as Unable to Locate the biological father.

Texas Court Order for Priority ICPC Placement (January 10, 2008)

On January 10, 2008, the OKDHS received a copy of the court order from the November 20, 2007, hearing regarding the priority ICPC placement of Vincent with Jeffries in Oklahoma. (A priority ICPC request is Regulation 7 of the federal Safe and Timely Interstate Placement of Foster Children Act of 2006. A Regulation 7 Priority Order provides timeframes for the receiving state to complete requests made to them, in order to expedite the placement of children into safe, suitable, and permanent homes across state lines.)

The court order stated:

The court finds all necessary prerequisites of the law have been satisfied and that a priority placement request is necessary and is so ordered for proposed placement with Michael Jeffries. It is further ordered that the Texas Department of Protective and Regulatory Services shall transmit over night express mail this order, the completed Form 100-A (Request for Placement) with supporting documentation pursuant to Article III, to the Compact Administrator for Texas within three (3) business days following receipt of this signed order. It is further ordered that the Compact Administrator shall transmit by overnight express mail all of the aforementioned documents, with a notice that the case is entitled to priority processing, to the Compact Administrator for the receiving state within two (2) business days.

Texas ICPC Request for Placement (January 15, 2008)

On January 15, 2008, the Texas DFPS made a new ICPC request to Oklahoma for the proposed placement of Vincent with Jeffries in Oklahoma. On February 19, 2008, the OKDHS approved the Texas ICPC request for the proposed placement.

Initial Home Study: Background Histories (February 8, 2008)

The OKDHS requested criminal and child abuse histories on Jeffries. The criminal history documented that Jeffries was charged on February 28, 2005, with “aggravated assault causes serious bodily injury”, a felony level offense in the second degree.

Initial Home Study: Recommendation for Placement (February 12, 2008)

The OKDHS documented that one employer and two personal references were contacted. The OKDHS also documented that criminal and child welfare histories were requested on all of the adult household members and that no Oklahoma criminal histories were found. However, OKDHS documentation indicated that Jeffries had stated during the home study that in 2004 he was arrested in Texas for assault and had served 30 days in jail. According to OKDHS documentation, Jeffries explained that while protecting his mother, he engaged in a fight with his mother’s husband. According to Jeffries, after he was released from jail, he never heard anything more regarding the altercation.

On February 12, 2008, the OKDHS recommended placement of Vincent with Jeffries in Oklahoma.

Regulation 7/Priority Home Study (February 19, 2008)

OKDHS documentation indicated that on February 19, 2008, the OKDHS approved the request from Texas DFPS for the OKDHS ICPC unit to conduct a priority home study.

Texas DFPS Family Service Plan Evaluation (June 26, 2008)

According to OKDHS documentation, the Texas DFPS documented that as of June 26, 2008, Jeffries had been cooperative and that Jeffries and his wife had complied with the request by Texas DFPS to obtain psychological evaluations, a condition Texas DFPS required before deciding whether or not to approve the home study. The OKDHS documented that Texas DFPS documented, "Mr. Jeffries is ready and willing to comply with services in order for his son to be placed with him."

Order for Placement (July 15, 2008)
