Death Incident

The death report was received by the Pittsburg County OKDHS on July 15, 2016. The OKDHS received a report regarding twenty one month old, Emily Sizemore, alleged to have been drowned by her father, Devin Sizemore.

The OKDHS accepted this report as a Priority I Investigation. Reportedly, officers found the child floating in a pond and a hole had been dug in a horse stall approximately three foot long, two foot wide, and one foot deep. Collaterals stated the father had been speaking of "God" and that the child was with God. The OKDHS Substantiated the allegation of Abuse-Death as to the father.

Prior Involvement with the Department of Human Services

There was one prior report of abuse/neglect, which was pertinent to the death incident.

The report was received on April 18, 2016, and was assigned as a Priority II Investigation with five days to initiate contact with the alleged victim. The reporter stated a domestic violence situation occurred between Devin Sizemore and the mother. Reportedly the incident occurred in front of Emily Sizemore and the mother had an injury to her head.

The OKDHS determined the child to be safe with her mother and Substantiated the allegation of Neglect-Exposure to Domestic Violence against the father. The father was arrested for Domestic Violence. The OKDHS recommended the mother obtain a protective order and she declined a Sooner Start referral.

On May 2, 2016, Devin Sizemore was criminally charged with Domestic Abuse-Assault and Battery; CM-2016-00312. He was released from jail on May 2, 2016. As a condition of his release, he was to have no contact with the mother. He was out on bail when the child was killed.
