

The Office of Planning and Coordination

The Office of Planning and Coordination (P&C) dedicates itself to serving and improving the lives of Oklahoma's youth and families through joint planning and service coordination among stakeholders.

EXTERNAL FACTORS

Policy change at the state or federal level.

Socio-economic factors such as changes in employment, poverty, and housing.

Public perception of issues relating to children, families, and homelessness.

External funding sources.

ASSUMPTIONS

Stakeholders are willing to participate in trainings, meetings, and data collection.

Data collection tools are able to effectively capture candid responses.

Sufficient funding to carry out evaluation plan activities.

GOALS

Foster collaboration among state- funded agencies and community-based organizations to maximize the impact of services on Oklahoma's children and youth.

Increase parent and youth leadership in community programs and engagement with state agencies to identify gaps, strive towards improvements, and advocate for changes that benefit Oklahoma families.

CORE VALUES

Equity: Ensuring fair and equal access to services and opportunities for all children and families, regardless of their backgrounds or circumstances.

Empowerment: Supporting parents and families in decision-making processes and advocating for their needs and rights.

Collaboration: Fostering partnerships and collaboration among stakeholders from diverse sectors to address complex social issues and achieve shared goals.

Accountability: Striving to ensure that joint planning and service coordination reflects high-quality services that effectively utilize resources.

Respect: Valuing the dignity, perspectives, and experiences of every individual and treating them with respect and empathy.

Continuous Improvement: Committing to ongoing learning and improvement, using evaluation findings to inform programmatic decisions and enhance outcomes for children and families.

Cultural Humility: Recognizing and respecting the diversity of cultures, languages, and identities within the communities we serve, and ensuring that services are culturally responsive and inclusive.
