DOCC obtains refunds for affected Oklahoma borrowers

The Oklahoma Department of Consumer Credit (DOCC) announced today that it has obtained refunds on behalf of Oklahoma borrowers that were improperly charged fees and costs related to collection attempts in connection with unpaid deferred deposit loans. Refunds issued to Oklahoma borrowers in the last month total $119,263.77, which brings the total refunds to Oklahoma borrowers this past year to more than $167,000.00 for similar violations as a result of the Department's compliance efforts.

For inquiries related to eligibility for a refund, please email questions@okdocc.ok.gov.
