

“I like living alone where I can play my guitar and do my music.

Being on my own is one of my greatest joys — I’m thankful for my independence.”

—Charles, Tulsa

Living Choice Program Participant

Living Choice is designed to transition individuals out of long-term care institutions and back into the community of their choice.

It has helped more than 1,000 Oklahomans reclaim their independence — and saved the state nearly $9 million.

It can help you, too.
