Bi-monthly tribal consultation meetings occur on the first Tuesday of every odd month. Topics for discussion include but are not limited to state plan amendments, budget, policy and other business. Notice is sent to tribal partners two weeks in advance of consultation date.

OHCA convenes meeting; key OHCA staff present agenda items and are available for discussion.

OHCA maintains a record of the consultations and outcomes, and reports accordingly.

Tribal partners have 60 days to comment on current agenda items. Comments are considered by OHCA for 30 days.
