b. the approximation was clearly identified as such and was reasonable and based on the best information available to the seller; and

c. the approximation was not used to circumvent the disclosure requirements of this act.

2. The error, inaccuracy or omission was not within the actual knowledge of the seller; or

3. The disclosure was based on information provided by public agencies and the seller reasonably believed the information to be correct.

C. The delivery by a public agency of any information required to be disclosed by the seller of the property shall satisfy the requirements of this act as to the disclosures to which the information being furnished is applicable.

Section 836. Duties of real estate licensee

A. A real estate licensee representing or assisting a seller has the duty to obtain from the seller a disclaimer statement or a disclosure statement and any amendment required by the Residential Property Condition Disclosure Act and to make such statement available to potential purchasers prior to acceptance of an offer to purchase.

B. A real estate licensee representing or assisting a purchaser has the duty to obtain and make available to the purchaser a disclaimer statement or a disclosure statement and any amendment required by the Residential Property Condition Disclosure Act prior to the acceptance of an offer to purchase.

C. A real estate licensee has the duty to disclose to the purchaser any defects in the property actually known to the licensee which are not included in the disclosure statement or any amendment.

D. A real estate licensee who has complied with the requirements of subsections A, B and C of this section, as applicable, shall have no further duties to the seller or the purchaser regarding any disclosures required under the Residential Property Condition Disclosure Act.

E. A real estate licensee who has not complied with the requirements of subsections A, B and C of this section shall be subject to disciplinary action by the Oklahoma Real Estate Commission as set forth in paragraph 6 of Section 8758-208 of Title 59 of the Oklahoma Statutes, regarding psychological or otherwise for a failure under subsection a of this section by the seller or the real estate licensee to disclose in the disclosure statement or any amendment provided to the purchaser any defects in the property or a defect which was actually known to the seller prior to acceptance of an offer to purchase; or

3. The failure of the real estate licensee to disclose to the purchaser any defects in the property actually known to the real estate licensee prior to acceptance of an offer to purchase and which were not included in the disclosure statement or any amendment provided to the purchaser.

B. The sole and exclusive civil remedy at common law or otherwise for a failure under subsection A of this section by the seller or the real estate licensee shall be an action for actual damages, including the cost of repairing the defect suffered by the purchaser as a result of a defect existing in the property as of the date of acceptance by the seller of an offer to purchase and shall not include the remedy of exemplary damages.

C. Any action brought under this act shall be commenced within two (2) years after the date of transfer of real property subject to this act.

D. In any civil action brought under this act, the prevailing party shall be allowed court costs and a reasonable attorney fee to be set by the court and to be collected as costs.

E. A transfer of a possessory interest in property subject to this act may not be invalidated solely because of the failure of any person to comply with this act.

F. This act applies to, regulates and determines common law or otherwise for a failure of the seller to disclose in the disclosure statement or any amendment prior to acceptance of an offer to purchase.

Section 838. Exemptions from application of act

A. This act does not apply to:

1. Transfers pursuant to court order, including, but not limited to, transfers pursuant to a writ of execution, transfers by eminent domain and transfers pursuant to an order for partition;

PREFACE

The Oklahoma Real Estate Commission does not have jurisdiction over the Residential Property Condition Disclosure Act but does have jurisdiction over a real estate licensee who fails to comply with this act.

The Real Estate Commission is responsible for developing and amending the disclosure and disclaimer forms, and making such forms available.

This pamphlet has been compiled and published for the benefit of real estate licensees and members of the general public for information purposes only. It is intended as a general guide and is not for the purpose of answering specific legal questions. Questions of interpretation should be referred to an attorney.

Any alleged dispute or violation of this Act of a civil nature must be adjudicated in a court of proper jurisdiction. Further, if the violation involves a real estate licensee, individuals should contact the Real Estate Commission.

THE RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY CONDITION DISCLOSURE ACT

Section 831. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Residential Property Condition Disclosure Act."

Section 832. Definitions

As used in this act:

1. "Offer to purchase" means an offer to purchase property made by a purchaser pursuant to a written contract.

2. "Seller" means one or more persons who are attempting to transfer a possessory interest in property and who are either:
   a. represented by a real estate licensee;
   b. not represented by a real estate licensee but receive a written request from the purchaser to deliver or cause to be delivered a disclaimer statement or disclosure statement as such terms are defined in paragraphs 11 and 12 of this section.

3. "Purchaser" means one or more persons who are attempting to acquire a possessory interest in property.

4. "Real estate licensee" means a person licensed under the Oklahoma Real Estate License Code.

5. "Transfer" means a sale or conveyance, exchange or option to purchase by written instrument of a possessory interest in property for consideration.

6. "Person" means an individual, corporation, limited liability company, partnership, association, trust or other legal entity or any combination thereof.

7. "Contract" means an offer by the seller to purchase contract for the sale, conveyance or exchange of property, option to purchase property, or a lease with an option to purchase property.

8. "Property" means residential real property improved with not less than one nor more than two dwelling units.

9. "Defect" means a condition, malfunction or problem that would have a materially adverse effect on the monetary value of the property, or that would impair the health or safety of future occupants of the property.

10. "Disclosure" means a written declaration required by this act based on actual knowledge of the real estate licensee regarding specific defects of the property. A disclosure for purposes of this act is not a warranty, implied or express, of any kind.

11. "Disclaimer statement" means the statement described in paragraph 1 of subsection A of section 3 of this act.

12. "Disclosure statement" means the statement described in paragraph 2 of subsection A of section 4 of this act.

Section 833. Disclaimer and disclosure statements

A. A seller of property located in this state shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the purchaser of such property one of the following:
   1. A written property disclaimer statement on a form established by rule by the Oklahoma Real Estate Commission which states that the seller:
      a. has never occupied the property and makes no disclosures concerning the condition of the property, and
      b. has no actual knowledge of any defect;
   or
   2. A written property condition disclosure statement on a form established by rule by the Oklahoma Real Estate Commission which states that the seller:

   or
   6. A written property condition disclosure statement on a form established by rule by the Oklahoma Real Estate Commission which states that the seller:
      a. has never occupied the property and makes no disclosures concerning the condition of the property, and
      b. has no actual knowledge of any defect;
   or
   7. A written property condition disclosure statement on a form established by rule by the Oklahoma Real Estate Commission which states that the seller:
      a. has never occupied the property and makes no disclosures concerning the condition of the property, and
      b. has no actual knowledge of any defect;
   or
   8. A written property condition disclosure statement on a form established by rule by the Oklahoma Real Estate Commission which states that the seller:
      a. has never occupied the property and makes no disclosures concerning the condition of the property, and
      b. has no actual knowledge of any defect;
   or
   9. A written property condition disclosure statement on a form established by rule by the Oklahoma Real Estate Commission which states that the seller:
      a. has never occupied the property and makes no disclosures concerning the condition of the property, and
      b. has no actual knowledge of any defect;
   or
   10. A written property condition disclosure statement on a form established by rule by the Oklahoma Real Estate Commission which states that the seller:
      a. has never occupied the property and makes no disclosures concerning the condition of the property, and
      b. has no actual knowledge of any defect;
   or
   11. A written property condition disclosure statement on a form established by rule by the Oklahoma Real Estate Commission which states that the seller:
      a. has never occupied the property and makes no disclosures concerning the condition of the property, and
      b. has no actual knowledge of any defect;
   or
   12. A written property condition disclosure statement on a form established by rule by the Oklahoma Real Estate Commission which states that the seller:
      a. has never occupied the property and makes no disclosures concerning the condition of the property, and
      b. has no actual knowledge of any defect.

B. The disclosure statement shall include an identification of items of improvements with an inclusion in the sale of the property or rendering of whether such items or improvements are in normal working order. The disclosures required shall also include a statement of whether the seller has actual knowledge of any defect or information in relation to the following:
   a. water and sewer systems, including the source of household water, water treatment systems, sprinkler systems, occurrence of water in the heating and air conditioning ducts, water seepage or leakage, drainage or grading problems, and flood zone status;
   b. structural systems, including the roof, walls, floors, foundation and any basement;
   c. plumbing, electrical heating and air conditioning systems;
   d. infestation or damage of wood-destroying organisms;
   e. major fire or tornado damage;
   f. land use matters;
   g. existence of hazardous or regulated materials and other conditions having an environmental impact;
   h. existence of prior manufacturing of methamphetamine;
   i. any other detects known to the seller, and
   j. other matters the Oklahoma Real Estate Commission deems appropriate.

2. The disclosure statement shall include the following notices to the purchaser in bold and conspicuous type:
   a. "The information and statements contained in this disclosure statement are declaratory representations of the seller and are not the representations of the real estate licensee."
   b. "The information contained in this disclosure statement is not intended to be part of any contract between the purchaser and the seller." and
   c. "The declaratory and information contained in this disclosure statement are not warranties, express or implied of any kind, and are not a substitute for any inspections or warranties the purchaser may wish to obtain."

C. Either the disclaimer statement or the disclosure statement required by this section must be completed, signed and dated by the seller. The date of completion on either statement may not be more than one hundred eighty (180) days prior to the date of receipt of a signed statement.

3. The Oklahoma Real Estate Commission shall develop by rule the forms for the residential property condition disclaimer statement and the residential property condition disclosure statement. After development of the initial forms, the Oklahoma Real Estate Commission may amend by rule the forms as is necessary and appropriate.

Section 834. Delivery of statements

A. A seller shall deliver either the disclaimer statement or the disclosure statement to the purchaser as soon as practicable, but in any event it shall be delivered before acceptance of an offer to purchase.

B. If the disclaimer statement or disclosure statement is delivered to the purchaser after an offer to purchase has been made, the offer to purchase shall be accepted only after the purchaser has acknowledged receipt of the disclaimer statement or disclosure statement and confirmed the offer to purchase.

C. If the seller becomes aware of a defect after delivery to the purchaser of either a disclaimer statement or a disclosure statement or any amendment to the disclaimer statement which discloses the newly discovered defect, the disclosure statement or any amendment shall be in writing and shall be signed and dated by the seller. However, if the required document is delivered to the seller after an offer to purchase has been made, the offer to purchase shall be accepted only after the purchaser has acknowledged receipt of the required document and confirmed the offer to purchase.

D. The purchaser shall acknowledge in writing receipt of the disclaimer statement or the disclosure statement or any amendment to the disclaimer statement. The purchaser shall sign and date any acknowledgement. Such acknowledgement should accompany the offer to purchase the property. If the purchaser does not acknowledge receipt of the disclaimer statement or any amendment to the disclaimer statement, the confirmation shall be in writing, shall be signed and dated by the purchaser and shall be promptly delivered to the seller.

Section 835. Limitation of seller's liability

A. The seller shall not be liable for a defect or other condition in the property disclosed in the disclaimer statement or any amendment to the disclaimer statement. The purchaser shall sign and date any acknowledgement. Such acknowledgement should accompany the offer to purchase the property. If the purchaser does not acknowledge receipt of the disclaimer statement or any amendment to the disclaimer statement, the confirmation shall be in writing, shall be signed and dated by the purchaser and shall be promptly delivered to the seller.

B. The seller shall not be liable for any erroneous, inaccurate or omitted information supplied to the purchaser as a disclosure required by this act.

1. The error in accuracy or omission results from:
   a. inaccurate information was unknown to the seller at the time the disclosure was made.
