COMPLAINT

The Prosecutor for the Oklahoma State Board of Osteopathic Examiners (the “Board”), J. Patrick Quillian, states as follows:

1. Dr. Joshua James Livingston, D.O., is the holder of a license to practice as an osteopathic physician in the State of Oklahoma, license number 4209. Dr. Livingston received his license to practice osteopathic medicine in Oklahoma on July 1, 2004, and primarily practices in addiction medicine and family medicine. Dr. Livingston’s license to practice osteopathic medicine in Oklahoma lapsed on June 30, 2024.

2. Dr. Livingston is in violation of the Oklahoma Osteopathic Medicine Act (the “Act”), Tit. 59 O.S. § 637(A)(2), (A)(8), and (A)(12) which state:

A. The State Board of Osteopathic Examiners may ... suspend or revoke any license issued or reinstated by the Board upon proof that the applicant or holder of such a license:

2. Has engaged in the use or employment of ... unethical conduct or unprofessional conduct, as may be determined by the Board, in the performance of the functions or duties of an osteopathic physician[; or]

8. Is incapable, for medical or psychiatric or any other good cause, of discharging the functions of an osteopathic physician in a manner consistent with the public's health, safety, and welfare; [or]

12. Has been guilty of habitual drunkenness, or habitual addiction to the use of morphine, cocaine or other habit-forming drugs[.]

Past Board Actions and Investigations

3. The Board has addressed multiple complaints and allegations related to Dr. Livingston since he was licensed in 2004.

4. A 2012 Board investigation revealed the following:

a. In August 2012 the Board reviewed a three (3) month physician profile printout from the PMP. The months covered by this PMP were February, March and April 2012. An analysis of this PMP printout found that 6147 prescriptions of controlled dangerous substances (CDS, Schedules II-V) were issued or refilled for these three months. Dr. Livingston worked an average of 11 days per month for the three months reviewed.

b. During a period from October 2011 to May 2012, the office of the Chief Medical Examiner for the State of Oklahoma linked 4 (four) Probable Cause of Deaths to the same CDS prescribed by Dr. Livingston. For each of these patients, Dr. Livingston did not have a psychological function assessment, any previous medical records, no hospital records from recent admissions, results of any MRI examination, no imaging, no alternative treatment plan, no discussion of risks or benefits of CDS and no discussion about any drug abuse, alcohol consumption, suicide or the use of tobacco. For each of these patients, the office of the Chief Medical Examiner reported the probable cause of death was an Acute Combined Drug Toxicity or Combined Drug Toxicity due to enumerated drugs for each patient.

c. Dr. Livingston was the Medical Director for the South Pointe Pain Management Clinic ("Pain Clinic"). Concurrently, Dr. Livingston was the Medical Director for the Transformation Weight Loss Clinic. ("Transformation Clinic"). The Transformation Clinic was giving HCG, Herbal Treatments and Phentermine. The Transformation Clinic was using Dr. Livingston's DEA number to purchase drugs. Dr. Livingston did not review what the Transformation Clinic was purchasing with his DEA number and did not maintain a dispensing log with the Transformation Clinic. Dr. Livingston permitted staff at Transformation Weight Loss Clinic to use his DEA number to order and purchase drugs. Dr. Livingston did not know what drugs were ordered and did not keep a log of those dispensed.

5. Due to these above-referenced issues, the Board restricted Dr. Livingston's license under a five (5) year term of probation at a Board meeting on March 21, 2013. The Board's order specifically prohibited Dr. Livingston from administering, prescribing, or dispensing any CDS and required him to take various educational courses.

6. In September 2016, the Board denied a request from Dr. Livingston to administer Suboxone and required him to take the COMVEX Exam.

7. In March 2017, the Board removed the restrictions on Dr. Livingstons's license, except that he was still not allowed to dispense suboxone or any other addiction treatments. All other prescribing of controlled substances was permitted, but he was ordered to keep a log of all prescribing of controlled scheduled drugs and provide the log to Board Staff every month. The Board also prohibited Dr. Livingston from supervising mid-level practitioners.

8. Immediately following the March 2017 Board meeting, Dr. Livingston posted the following on social media: “Monkey suit before board meeting - all it took to be able to practice medicine again. Just look the part and you get it.”

9. In September 2017, the Board allowed Dr. Livingston to prescribe suboxone for a maximum of thirty (30) patients but prohibited him from dispensing suboxone from his office.

10. The Board lifted all restrictions on Dr. Livingston’s license in March 2018.

Recent Pending Complaints

11. In November 2021, the Board received a complaint alleging that Dr. Livingston had sexually harassed and threatened employees. It also alleged that he administered Ketamine to his minor daughter without the mother's consent.

12. The Board received a second complaint December 2021 alleging that Dr. Livingston’s staff and patients were fearful of him due to numerous aggressive and moody episodes. The complaint further alleged that Dr. Livingston had sexually harassed employees, sent inappropriate text messages to them, and frequently drank alcohol during office hours.

13. In 2022 the Board received a complaint alleging that Dr. Livingston was abusing drugs and alcohol.

14. In 2023 the Board received a complaint alleging that Dr. Livingston sexually harassed an employee. The complaint also alleged Dr. Livingston used cocaine, MDMA, alcohol and LSD. The complainant alleged improper prescription practices and improper delegation of duties to employees, and that Dr. Livingston had paid an employee $1000 to not report him to the Board.

Current Allegations

15. Due to the pending complaints against Dr. Livingston, the Executive Director of the Board placed a hold on Dr. Livingston's application for renewal of his license and required that he personally appear at the office of the Board to file an application for renewal.

16. On July 1, 2024, Dr. Livingston appeared in person at the office of the Board to speak with Board investigators about the multiple complaints the Board recently received as to his conduct. While Board investigators interviewed Dr. Livingston, they served a subpoena on him requiring that he take a drug test that day. Dr. Livingston in response indicated that he had used cocaine the previous Friday, June 28, 2024.

17. Dr. Livingston signed a contract with the Oklahoma Health Professionals Program on July 3, 2024, to address Board staff's substance abuse concerns, but he was terminated from the program on August 5, 2024, for failing to arrange an evaluation within thirty (30) days of signing the contract.

18. Wherefore, Dr. Livingston has violated the Act by: (1) engaging in unprofessional conduct in his duties as an osteopathic physician (to wit: using cocaine); (2) being incapable of discharging the functions of an osteopathic physician in a manner consistent with the public's health, safety, and welfare due to the use of cocaine; and 3) being guilty of habitual addiction to cocaine, a habit-forming drug.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORTING PERSON: Vannesa Landy

ORIGIN OF CALL:
 On June 28, 2024, at 2322 hours I was radio assigned to a domestic call at 4135 E 36th Place. Upon arrival I made contact with the victim, who relayed the following information.

VICTIM/PERSON REPORTING SUMMARY:
 Vannesa Landy stated that her boyfriend, Joshua Livingston, asked her to come to his house, and she refused. He was upset about a deadline concerning his medical license. She stated that he then came to her home. She stated that he was intoxicated, and she refused to admit him. She stated that he then kicked the door open, breaking the jam, stepped into the home, and then turned and walked back to his vehicle and drove away.

Vannesa stated that she and Livingston had been dating for approximately 3 years.

POINT/METHOD OF ENTRY:
 The front door was broken in, with damage showing on the jam. Photographs of the damage have been uploaded to Evidence.com

Livingston appeared to be intoxicated, having bloodshot eyes, slow, slurred speech, and an odor of alcoholic beverage on his person. Officers placed him under arrest.

Livingston asked why he was being arrested. When officers stated that he kicked down his girlfriend's door, to which he replied, "yes, I did."

Livingston was transported to David L Moss without incident and booked on charges of 1st Degree Burglary. While at the jail, he was read Miranda and invoked his rights, and was not questioned.

I spoke with Det. Howard, M232, with Burglary, who referred me to Family Violence due to the romantic relationship between the victim and suspect. I then spoke with Det. Raines, P293, who confirmed that it would be charged as Burglary.

I spoke with DHS employee Amy and received referral number 2414207.

On June 28, 2024, at 2322 hours I was radio assigned to a domestic call at 4135 E 36th Place. Upon arrival I made contact with the victim, who relayed the following information.

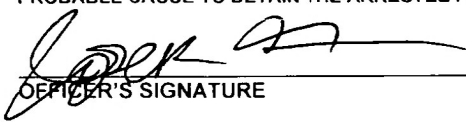

The victim stated that her boyfriend, Joshua Livingston, asked her to come to his house, and she refused. He was upset about a deadline concerning his medical license. She stated that he then came to her home. She stated that he was intoxicated, and she refused to admit him. She stated that he then kicked the door open, breaking the jam, stepped into the home, and then turned and walked back to his vehicle and drove away.

Officers obtained his address from the victim and later drove to his home where officers made contact with the suspect in his front yard. Officers placed him under arrest and transported him to David L Moss without incident, where he was booked on the above charges.

Livingston stated he was not a member of a Native American Tribe.

These events occurred in the city and county of Tulsa.

THE BELOW SIGNED OFFICER SWEARS AND AFFIRMS THAT THE ABOVE INFORMATION IS TRUE AND CORRECT AND PRAYS THIS HONORABLE COURT TO FIND PROBABLE CAUSE TO DETAIN THE ARRESTEE PENDING FURTHER PROCEEDINGS.

5 years ago I shaved and cut my hair and became a good boy again. That's all it took to be able to practice medicine again. Just look the part and you get it.

7-12-24, spoke with Pt, Pt agreed to send a narrative to detail the complaint. JF

7-16-24, Pt called Inv. Freeman in a panic, stating that Dr threatened her and scared her. Pt is thinking of withdrawing her complaint out of fear. JF

Case Review Summary

Pt sent an email to OSBOE stating that she has had some issues with her longtime doctor, Dr., stating that he was beginning to act strangely. Pt stated that on 7-8-24, she called Dr's office and had to make a payment for her appointment up front. Pt stated that she made the payment and was not notified that he was unlicensed. Dr. told Pt's fiancé that the medication would be called in by another doctor as he was having issues with the Board. Pt states she's concerned with safety [REDACTED]

On 7-12-24, Inv. Freeman spoke with Pt in reference to the complaint and Pt was in fear of retaliation by Dr.

On 7-16-24, Pt called Inv. Freeman in a very panicked state and was stating that Dr. called her up and was very irate over the phone. Pt states that the phone call was in reference to Dr knowing that Pt filed a complaint and that she would not receive a refund. Pt believes herself in danger now given that Dr knows her [REDACTED] and address.

Complaint Narrative

Complainant Narrative

I called his office for my phone visit on Monday, July 8, 2024. The office receptionist took my payment for myself, and also for my fiancé's visit as well. I have screenshots of his call and the receptionist conversation you will read down below. We spoke and he advised he would be calling in my medication to my/our usual Walgreens pharmacy at [REDACTED]. He did not advise me that he was in any trouble with the board, but when he spoke to my Fiancé, he did advise that our prescriptions would be called in by another doctor as he was having issues with the board.

I/we, have been patients of his for over a year. [REDACTED]

I called and called his office and cell with no answer, until today. I advised the receptionist that answered and she said "there are tons of people wanting a refund and she was shocked that he even did the phone appointments with us on Monday as she knows he already lost his license." She also advised he was trying to get another doctor to write the scripts, but that doctor declined.

I, in my heart, feel criminal charges should be brought against him. I know much much more from other patients, but do not feel comfortable disclosing at this time.

Please contact me directly to discuss further as my Fiance is an attorney, (former Federal Prosecutor) and we are not only willing to testify, but pursue further action against, Joshua Livingston. We have researched him and realize that the board only gave him five years probation for the deaths of eight patients.

I cannot imagine the hundreds of patients that he has left high and dry and taken the payments from. They have no voice other than through us, as unfortunately, people are not educated on how to file a complaint. As a side note, we will be seeking civil and criminal charges against him and look forward to your assistance in revoking his license and possibly his freedom as well.

My direct contact is [REDACTED]

Lastly, I was advised by your division that I would receive a return call within 24 hours. I look forward to hearing from your team.

Best Regards, [REDACTED]

7-12-24, Inv. Freeman called ██████████ back for more context. ██████████ answered and provided a large amount of information for Inv. Freeman pertaining to Livingston. ██████████ stated that she would provide an in-depth narrative to Inv. Freeman over the weekend that detailed all of the issues, ██████████ fiancé, ██████████ was also on the phone during the conversation. JF

7-16-24, Inv. Freeman received a call from ██████████ and ██████████ who were both very distraught, stating that they received a phone call from "Masters, MD" and identified it as Livingston on 7-15-24. ██████████ and ██████████ stated that Livingston threatened them, was irate on the phone and told them that they are not getting a refund on their medical appointment that they scheduled and paid for but Livingston cancelled. ██████████ stated that the receptionist told ██████████ that "We know you filed a complaint and we're coming after you." JF

Continued, Inv. Freeman received a phone call from Dr. Aaron Lane, OSU Medical Center Department Chair, PH 918-760-4730, who stated that he has had an influx of Livingston's patients and was concerned for future incidents. Dr. Lane stated that Livingston's patients have been coming in stating that they have tried to follow up with their care but no one is at Livingston's office and no one has referred Livingston's patients to another doctor. Dr. Lane was concerned that it may lead to patient harm. Inv. Freeman informed Dr. Lane to forward any patients they see that were abandoned to Inv. Freeman. The last one that Dr. Lane saw was ██████████ JF

7-17-24, Inv. Freeman observed a voicemail from ██████████ that was after hours on 7-16-24 stating that they believe there was a leak at OSBOE due to Livingston calling them. ██████████ stated that ██████████ was considering withdrawing the complaint out of fear of her safety. ██████████ called Inv. Freeman and stated that Livingston's secretary has been calling her and threatening her some more. ██████████ stated that they placed another $250 charge on her credit card for no reason, making it $500 and refusing to refund the money. ## Complaint Narrative

Complainant Narrative

I am a former employee of Dr. Joshua Livingston. While working for him I underwent a lot of sexual harassment, defamation of character, and also mental abuse. Dr. Livingston does not report the cash payments he makes Monday-Wednesday to the IRS or to the medical board. He also has had sexual relationships with every woman he has employed including me.

I informed Dr. Livingston that once I started working for him a sexual relationship would no longer be in my interest and he was really erratic because I would not sleep with him after I started working for him. He constantly sexually harassed me and even would invite me and friends over to party at his place on the days we did not work.

Dr. Livingston partakes in the use of Cocaine/Molly/Acid and he drinks at least a bottle of alcohol a day. I found out that Dr. Livingston wrongfully prescribed me [REDACTED] knowing that was the wrong medication to give me. He's also had me set up for surgical procedures that he does on his patients and I am not certified to do so. He's also allowed me to give myself a shot of medicine for hives which is against the law as well.

He has refused to provide me with my paycheck stubs for the past 4 months. He has always talked to me crazy and even asked me to take a urine sample for him. Dr. Livingston has been wrongfully practicing for quite some time now and I refuse to let him keep being able to operate under these circumstances. He was prescribing Valiums to a pregnant patient and has had to DEA come to the office before.

Please investigate this Dr thoroughly as it has been LONG OVERDUE. I've only withheld information about all I've known for my safety. He has also paid me 1000 to NOT turn him in to the medical board as well. I've only done [REDACTED] ONCE and it was an injection he gave me while in office that he said would help me with my [REDACTED] back in October 2022 when I first started working there. I have never given him permission to order a prescription of [REDACTED] under my name. He supplies the ketamine himself to patients in office. Well at least he's supposed to be doing that! Please investigate soon!

Complaint Narrative

Complainant Narrative

I have known Josh for a long time, and I'm aware he has had repeated issues with the board (suspended license for years, repeat DUIs). He posted the attached picture on his Facebook page today (3/17/2022), stating that "all it took to be able to practice medicine" is to "look the part" after his license had been suspended for 3+ years for malpractice, implying all he had to do is shave his beard and cut his hair. I'm also aware that he recently lost custody of children because he tested positive for drugs, and that he is continuing to use substances (drugs and alcohol) as well as owning a marijuana business. I do believe he is a threat to not only himself but to the patients he is responsible for and he should not be permitted to practice medicine in any forum.

I worked for Dr. LIVINGSTON Coming out of a [REDACTED] during Covid. MYSELF and my Co worker both left due to duress and harassment from him. He threaten to hit me for interrupting him. HE SEXUAL harassed her. Due to Covid and not having anywhere else to work we endured it together having no where else to work. He was so violent, unprofessional with our previous landlord over a flood they evicted him. We grew more cautious of him being afraid of his temper. He had no business insurance when we started which is also part reasons for why the previous landlord took him to court. IT was only after he signed a lease with my brother that he got business or malpractice insurance. We never recieved a pay check sub I specifically requested them with my last check but he didn't pay my last check out and stubs weren't sent. He made multiple very inappropriate sexual jokes and comments to myself, patients and my colleague. For example, When we were coming up with ideas for Halloween costumes my colleague came up with idea us girls at the front desk could be ketchup & mustard and he could be the hot dog he immediately made that into a sexual meaning and said "...everyone will think we were fucking... think about it what goes on top of a hot dog. " my colleague & I were shocked & appalled he'd think of such a perverted thing we didn't know what to say to his filth. She & I both had to make it very clear multiple times we were only there to work, not have personal relationship with him. I made a point to never call him by his 1st name as he said to, to keep it professional. At first we thought it would be different but over time he grew more frustrated and aggressive with us & myself specifically. He yelled at me in front of patients for opening urine cups to loudly. He yelled at me for turning the volume down on music for a patient's ketamine treatment as she requested. She was shocked and apologized to me for "getting me in trouble". I saw him administering ketamine to his daughter multiple times, who is under 18 without her mother's consent. This was something we were told not to discuss. He got so mad at me he would physically be shaking and have to storm out of the building. When he threatened to hit me via group text with my Co worker after I apologized and continued to badger and harass me I was so afraid I didn't want to see him again. I have since found new employment for myself and my Co worker that left Dr. Livingston. The new dr. We work currently suggested that we file this complaint to let someone know.

Dr. Livingston sexually harassed me on multiple occasions using Facebook messaging and text messaging. The office staff had access to the office cell, it was used to take photos of patients, take credit card payments, social media accounts. Dr. Livingston was addressed by my coworker that she didn't think it was appropriate or professional. Dr. Livingston deleted the apps. I let Dr. Livingston know multiple times I appreciated my job, I needed the job to support my family. In fear of losing my job during a pandemic being a single mom I continued to work though the abuse. Dr. Livingston continued to text me inappropriately until my last day 11/15/2021. Dr. Okonya is going to appear before the Board in September. I enclose the letter from his Residency program supporting his application for a full license.

I have read his Acumen report (attached) and have several concerns. Let me list those below:

Problematic Findings

1. Dr. Okonya's scores on the WAIS-IV reflect a significant degree of difficulty with abstract verbal reasoning, with a Similarities subtest score indicative of borderline impairment. Dr. Okonya's responses on the task reflect an incredibly simplistic approach toward identifying abstract connections between increasingly dissimilar concepts. He demonstrates a basic capacity for thinking in an abstract capacity around simple and straightforward ideas, and he struggles as the ideas become more complex.
2. This score indicates some difficulty related to the executive functions involved in pattern recognition, deductive reasoning, and adapting to shifting task demands. He seemed to have the most difficulty adapting when the test stimuli required him to modify his understanding of the underlying problem-solving rule. He was able to demonstrate an understanding of the correct problem-solving rule on all of the subtests, although, on several subtests adapting to the correct strategy took him some time and trial and error. His score does not appear to reflect a neurological deficit in executive reasoning but rather limitations in his approach to executive reasoning that put him at risk of poor judgment. There are no indications of neurocognitive problems or deficits that would impact his judgment, with the exception that he is slow to adapt in terms of executive reasoning and he has a limited capacity for abstract verbal reasoning. Situations are easier for him to navigate when they are simple and straightforward, and he is not necessarily inclined to consider the bigger picture beyond his own personal interest when considering the potential outcomes of his decisions.
3. He does not endorse any areas of psychological distress, even to the degree that most people are willing to acknowledge. He prefers to see himself as someone who is ambitious, diligent, reliable, responsible, and personable, who happens to be free of shortcomings and personal flaws. This is an unrealistic and overly idealized self-image, which seems to mask underlying insecurities and shortcomings. There are indications that he is prone to overconfidence, which may prime him to come across as inappropriately enthusiastic, immature, or irresponsible in a professional medical environment.
4. Overall, Dr. Okonya's intellectual abilities should be sufficient for what is required in medical practice. He may find his insecurities triggered in situations where others more easily adapt to changes or find solutions in abstract situations. However, his biggest challenge appears to be related to maturity. He needs to learn what it means to view himself as a professional and develop the ability to conduct himself accordingly. He needs to be able to consider perspectives beyond his own.

In addition to these findings, the recommendation is concerning as follows:

Finding and Recommendation: Unfortunately, given the problems he faces within his program and with the medical board, it is likely to require an intensive process of professionals treatment for him to gain the level of insight he needs.... The assessment team recommends that Dr. Okonya engage in a Board-approved safety-sensitive professionals treatment program focused on professional self-management and development

I will not be recommending full licensing at the meeting, but I may not properly understand the report. Please take time in advance of the hearing to consider this matter.

Dear Oklahoma State Board of Osteopathic Examiners board members,

I am writing to provide an update on Dr. Ochije Okonya's progress within our program since June 2024. As you are aware, Dr. Okonya was ordered to undergo a comprehensive professional fitness-for-duty evaluation with Acumen Assessment, the results of which are enclosed with this letter.

I am pleased to report that Dr. Okonya has met all the requirements set forth by our program and has not incurred any new infractions to date. He continues to meet with me weekly to discuss the professionalism materials he is diligently working through, demonstrating a commendable commitment to his development. His dedication has resulted in a significant improvement, and he is now consistently receiving positive evaluations and feedback from all attending physicians.

Given his progress, we respectfully request that Dr. Okonya be added to the agenda for the September board meeting to review his case for full licensure. We believe he is prepared to advance to PGY-2 and would appreciate consideration for his licensure by the next board meeting or, at the latest, by the December meetings.

Please be assured that Dr. Okonya will continue to be closely monitored throughout the remainder of the six-month period to ensure his ongoing compliance and development.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Lori Peters, D.O.

OSU MRHC Family Medicine Program Director

Professional Fitness for Duty Evaluation

Re: Okonya, Ochije
DOB: 8/20/1988

Identifying Information and Relevant History:

Dr. Okonya is a 35-year-old, single PGYI extended Family Medicine resident. He was evaluated by the Acumen Assessments team (Drs. Whipple, Seely, Hypse, Graham, and Latham) from Monday, July 29, 2024 to Thursday, August 1, 2024. He was referred to Acumen Assessments following instances of unprofessional behavior, dishonesty, and practicing without the appropriate level of supervision.

On May 27, 2023, Dr. Okonya applied for licensure with the Oklahoma State Board of Osteopathic Examiners (Board). He failed to report previous criminal convictions. When questioned on this failure, Dr. Okonya failed to share all previous convictions until directly confronted by the Board.

During his first year of residency, Dr. Okonya failed to present to scheduled events and rotations. He was provided a letter of concern on November 16, 2023. At the meeting, he signed the letter without reading it. He was placed on an Individual Learning Plan in January; however, he did not complete the plan on time.

Collateral sources cite multiple instances of Dr. Okonya practicing without appropriate supervision or outside his current expertise level. In one instance, he placed a central line without supervision and without being signed off to do the procedure independently. In another instance, he completed an I&D without appropriate supervision. At one point, Dr. Okonya triaged patients in the ER waiting room without being asked to do so, leading to some patients leaving without being seen.

On April 11, 2024, Dr. Okonya lied to his attending physician, telling him that he had to leave for an early appointment at his other clinic when, in fact, Dr. Okonya did not have an early appointment scheduled. Initially, when confronted about his lie, Dr. Okonya doubled down and stated he thought he saw an early appointment.

Dr. Okonya was placed on Reviewable Concern on April 12, 2024, as a result of his pattern of infractions. He is on probation from May 15, 2024, until October 15, 2024. Collateral sources indicate Dr. Okonya failed to respond to emailed invitations to a Professionalism Committee Review meeting. He did not appear at the meeting, which was rescheduled, and he stated he did not receive the emails. Dr. Okonya presented late to the rescheduled meeting. He indicated he was unable to find the room despite having a previous meeting in the same room.

Dr. Okonya submitted an application for full licensure with the Board. He again failed to report his previous criminal history despite his previous interaction with the Board. The Board investigator recommended a “denial of licensure due to a pattern of clinical performance issues and character issues.” As a result, Dr. Okonya had to present in front of the Board.

Collateral sources worry that Dr. Okonya is “disingenuous.” He has displayed “an unwillingness to change his behavior,” and some see him as using his “superficial charm to verbally manipulate others.” Furthermore, there were questions of whether he was remediable. He has been resistant to authority and seems to make only superficial acknowledgments of wrongdoing. However, others have seen progress in the last couple of months.

Summary of the Evaluation:

Dr. Okonya presents as a charming, engaging individual. He is well put together and pleasant. While generally transparent, there are instances of him not disclosing pertinent information until specifically asked (e.g., he did not disclose his previous leave of absence or academic probation until directly asked by the evaluation team).

He admits he failed to appreciate the importance of professionalism or even his lack of education in the area of professionalism. He admits he was late to rotation and indicates it was due to misunderstandings about expectations. He admits he lied to his attending, stating he was worried about how he would be perceived if he said he wanted to leave to get lunch before his next rotation. He admits it was disrespectful of him not to attend events he had committed to. Furthermore, he admits he has been dismissive of the concerns of others. He attempts to show his independence; however, he fails to realize when he is in over his head.

Dr. Okonya reports that he needs structure and clearly communicated expectations. He admits he was not proactive in finding out what the expectations were. He now realizes he should be proactive and clarify what is expected of him.

He feels he was always reactive in residency. He was not on time because he was not proactively thinking about where to be and when. He admits to having difficulty with being on time and dependable. He has not always followed the rules and policies. Over time, this compounded to lead to his current situation.

Dr. Okonya states he initially failed to disclose his criminal history to the Board because he did not think it mattered, as it had been so long ago, and because he was embarrassed. Regarding the second failure to disclose, Dr. Okonya reports he had accidentally started an application for full licensure when he applied the first time. This application was still saved. He used this saved application when he applied for full licensure and neglected to review all the questions that had already been completed leading to the failure to disclose.

Dr. Okonya indicates that he has completed all the requirements of his initial remediation plan. He presented a lecture on professionalism to the junior residents. Collateral sources indicate he did quite well in this presentation and was very transparent, using his mistakes as examples. He completed a course on medical professionalism and was cleared to do a central line independently. Additionally, Dr. Okonya has been meeting with his program director weekly and reading the book Understanding Medical Professionalism. He has to present on each chapter to his program director as part of his remediation. He has learned that professionalism is a skill. It is a competency that he needs to work toward. Professionalism is a career-long endeavor. He has learned through experience and his mistakes.

Dr. Okonya reports that he can become very anxious when others evaluate him. This anxiety has led to panic-like symptoms and a need to remove himself from the situation. He believes this is, in part, why he lied to his attending. Additionally, he struggles to admit he is uncomfortable in these situations. He attempts to cover up his discomfort with overconfidence, which leads to lapses in judgment. He admits he is not the most emotionally aware individual, which has been brought to his attention in other areas of his life.

Dr. Okonya does not evidence a neuropsychological impairment. He does show difficulty adjusting or adapting his approach and looking at the big picture, which can lead to poor judgment.

Dr. Okonya is a driven and ambitious individual who struggles to acknowledge his shortcomings. He attempts to displace his discomfort through minimization, externalization, and overconfidence. He acknowledges he can be self-centered which can create difficulties in taking the perspective of others. In his shortsightedness, Dr. Okonya failed to see the big picture when attempting to displace immediate discomforts. This juvenile response encapsulates his greater need for maturity as he develops into a medical professional. He seems genuine in his desire to grow; however, due to his propensity for manipulative charm and displacement of blame, he will need to show his sincerity through his actions.

Diagnoses:

The following diagnoses are offered based on the multidisciplinary assessment team's evaluation of Dr. Okonya and DSM-5-TR criteria:

- F40.10 Social Anxiety Disorder

- Marked fear or anxiety about one or more social situations in which he is exposed to possible scrutiny by others. This is particularly salient when under scrutiny by the Board or a superior in his medical training.
- He fears that he will act in a way or show anxiety symptoms that will be negatively evaluated (i.e., be humiliated or embarrassed; lead to rejection or offend others).
- The social situations almost always provoke fear or anxiety.
- The social situations are avoided or endured with intense fear or anxiety. He has used deception as a method of avoidance.
- The fear or anxiety is out of proportion to the actual threat posed by the social situation and to the sociocultural context.
- This is persistent and clinically significant.
- Histrionic Personality Style with Narcissistic Personality Type

Conclusions:

The assessment team is of the opinion that Dr. Okonya is conditionally fit to practice medicine due to characterological factors. His unprofessional behavior and dishonesty stem primarily from a lack of maturity and fear of negative appraisal. He becomes anxious about being perceived negatively and masks his fear with overconfidence and unsophisticated lies to prevent immediate consequences. He uses his charm and charisma to navigate situations and can, at best, be misleading when attempting to portray himself in a more positive manner. This behavior has seriously called into question his character, and his repeated unprofessional behavior, despite attempts to remediate, has only served to further alienate him in the eyes of various authorities.

With a reasonable degree of psychological/medical certainty, the assessment team estimates that Dr. Okonya is at risk for continued unprofessional behavior if the appropriate remediation and education outlined below are not followed. He lacks the psychological acumen necessary to manage his current demands adequately. It is hard to determine whether Dr. Okonya is truly sincere in his remorse or if he is attempting to use his charm to navigate through a perilous situation. He has a bright future in medicine, and his program seems supportive; however, his future in medicine is balanced precariously. He will need to prove to various authorities that he is trustworthy and genuine and that these lapses in judgment and professionalism are truly behind him. Furthermore, as he has been given multiple chances by the Board, he can no longer rely on ignorance as an excuse, exemplifying the need for significant orientation and education regarding professionalism, personal self-management, and rebuilding trust.

Recommendations:

1. The assessment team recommends that Dr. Okonya engage in a Board-approved safety-sensitive professionals treatment program focused on professional self-management and development. This process should involve an immersion into a sequence of interventions aimed at helping him to:
  - a. Address the emotional, environmental, professional, historical, and interpersonal components that are causal in his poor professional self-management and dishonesty (e.g., anxiety, avoidance, oblivious naiveté, and grandiosity)
  - b. Examine the personal vulnerabilities that have contributed to his poor interactions with attendings and resistance to authority.
  - c. Internalize the skills needed to engage effectively with supervisors, colleagues, and patients in a mature, professional manner (e.g., use of mindfulness, engage in sound judgment)
  - d. Develop skills related to psychological awareness and self-evaluation
  - e. Develop healthy coping skills for managing stressors in the work environment
  - f. Facilitate a better understanding of healthy limit-setting and develop the necessary skills to implement an intentional professional identity
  - g. Identify and challenge maladaptive automatic thoughts contributing to his negative interactions
2. Dr. Okonya will need to slow down and be intentional in his actions and decisions. He has a history of overlooking critical details, leading to faulty assumptions.
3. Dr. Okonya should develop and practice mindfulness as a means to become better aware of himself and his environment. This can allow him to better manage his emotions and act accordingly.
4. Dr. Okonya will benefit from reading the Power of Now and the 4 Agreements.
5. The assessment team recommends that Dr. Okonya practice at all times in full accordance with relevant federal, state, local, organizational, and professional regulations, ethical guidelines, and best practices. If he ever is unable or unwilling to adhere to these requirements, we recommend that he disengage himself from the practice of medicine immediately until reassessment finds him ready to resume practicing.

Procedures and Informed Consent:

Dr. Okonya was evaluated the week of August 2, 2024 at the offices of Acumen Assessments, LLC. The evaluation team consisted of John Whipple, MD, MRO, Michael Seely, PsyD, Peter Graham, PhD, Joshua Hypse, PsyD, and Alex Latham, PsyD. These evaluators conducted clinical interviews and were also involved in the analysis of the assessment data. Dr. Latham served as primary evaluator. Dr. Okonya was administered standardized tests of mental and emotional functioning in adults (the Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory-2, or MMPI-2, the Millon Clinical Multiaxial Inventory-IV, or MCMI-IV, the Personality Assessment Inventory, or PAI); a standard test of normal personality styles (Millon Index of Personality Styles Revised, or MIPS Revised); selected subtests of a standardized test of current verbal and nonverbal intellectual functioning (the Wechsler Adult Intelligence Scale -- Fourth Edition, or WAIS-IV); selected subtests of a standardized test of memory and learning (Wechsler Memory Scale – Fourth Edition, or WMS-IV); a standardized test of executive conceptual functioning (the Booklet Category Test); and a standardized test of attention, concentration, distractibility, and impulsivity (the Connors' Continuous Performance Test 3, or CPT 3). Dr. Okonya was administered the following subtests from the Delis-Kaplan Executive Function System (D-KEFS): Verbal Fluency Test, Color-Word Interference Test, Sorting Test, and Tower Test.

Dr. Okonya and the referral source were requested to provide pertinent collateral information to aid in the process of conducting an objective assessment. This report will not delineate the details of the various complaints and incident events. However, the details of these complaints and events described in the collateral materials listed above were reviewed in detail and informed our opinion. The evaluation team is not an investigating body, but will review collateral information and talk with parties familiar with the client, if indicated. This evaluation does not constitute a fact-finding process. The finding of fact(s) is an administrative or legal determination. In this case, the assessment team's role is to determine fitness while taking into consideration various data points, allegations, and evidence that have come from prior administrative/legal investigations and/or determinations.

The diagnostic conclusions and recommendations contained within this report are stated with a reasonable degree of psychological/medical certainty unless otherwise indicated. Additional information not disclosed to the examiners in this case could alter the findings outlined in this report. The examiners reserve the right to amend these conclusions and recommendations should additional data become known to them. Natural limitations in the assessment process and our state of knowledge are acknowledged. Questions regarding "medical competence" were not specifically addressed in this assessment. However, psychological, cognitive, psychiatric, and medical matters and their potential negative impact on competency and professionalism were explored. Additionally, as noted in the examinee's signed consent to undergo this examination, they acknowledged that they are not a patient and that this examination is not a therapeutic/treatment or healthcare process.

Dr. Okonya indicates he attended the University of Central Oklahoma. He majored in biomedical sciences. He was there for 2.5 years before dropping out. He owed the school tuition, so they would not let him continue until the balance was paid off. This kept him out of college for the next four years. He went back and finished his degree in another two years. He waited tables when he was out of school, but he did not put the money toward his tuition. He always knew he wanted to be a doctor, but he lost a sense of purpose during those years.

Dr. Okonya states he attended Oklahoma State University-Tulsa for medical school. He was there for four years. He started his family medicine residency after that. He is in his second year. He plans to complete his residency in 2026.

Substance Use/Addiction History:Common Classes of Substances:

Alcohol: Dr. Okonya states he first drank around 18. He was with a friend who was a "big, white, country guy." He would go to his house, and that friend was a very heavy drinker. He remembers the guy chugging from a bottle of vodka. He remembers thinking it was "cool." He had a drink with him. He would have a few drinks on the weekends after that. He would drink liquor, beer, or whatever he could get his hands on. In college, he would have drinks at fraternity parties with his brothers. He never drank by himself or in the morning, just when he was out on weekends. He averaged three or four drinks a week in college. After he dropped out, he waited tables and lived a bar lifestyle. He would have a couple or three drinks after work with his coworkers. That was probably more throughout the week during that time. When he went back to college, he stopped drinking because his older brother passed away from drug-related causes. He was motivated to go after his dream of medicine, so he was completely sober for three years. Once he started medical school, he began having drinks in a social setting. When he would go out, he would have three or four drinks. He averaged three or four drinks a week during medical school. He has not had any alcohol since he started residency 17 months ago. He has decided that he does not want to drink alcohol again. He saw it as putting him at risk. His uncle is an ex-NFL player and Gold medalist Olympian in track and field, and he had a problem with drugs and alcohol but has been sober for 16 years now. He has always looked up to this uncle, and the fact that he has emphasized sobriety and service through AA and other avenues is something that he also wants to strive for.

Psychiatric History:

Dr. Okonya reports that his older brother passed away about nine years ago. He was addicted to opiates, in and out of jail, and was killed after he got into a fight with another guy after messing around with his girlfriend. Dr. Okonya dropped out of college and was waiting tables. His brother's death was a "turning point" in Dr. Okonya's life. He and his mother went for #6-8 grief sessions. Dr. Okonya's mother knew the counselor through the family's experience as foster parents. Dr. Okonya's marijuana possession charges were in 2010. His brother's death was in 2015. Dr. Okonya dropped out of college after moving from his off-campus housing into the dormitory. The on-campus housing was much more expensive, and Dr. Okonya was behind on his payments. He was out of school for about four years.

Otherwise, Dr. Okonya has never seen a psychiatrist, psychologist, or counselor. He meets with Lori Peters, DO, weekly and is reading a book called Understanding Medical Professionalism. He reads a chapter, and then they discuss it.

"What are you taking away from the book?"

"Professionalism is a skill or competency that must be practiced. We are not inherently professional." As a skill, he can be intentional, and even the best doctors have professional lapses. There is no finish line.

He identifies communication, honesty, using language that connects with the patient, and acknowledging mistakes or lapses in medical knowledge.

He also identifies humanness, the ability to engage with others as individuals, and respect for their uniqueness.

Additionally, he identifies ethics, weighing out difficult individuals and medical conflicts.

Furthermore, he identifies time management and timely attention to the various duties. We discussed time management and the interpersonal struggles that hijack a clinician's time.

"Do you have a good definition of integrity?"

“Doing the right thing when it is hard or others are not looking. Wholeness.”

“How’s your teamwork?”

Dr. Okonya feels his teamwork is a personal strength. He distinguishes his medical school experience as a solo individual trying to make the grades from his residency experience. He feels he leans on his other residents. This is a relatively new approach for him.

Dr. Okonya has never used or been prescribed any psychotropic medication.

Mental Status Examination:

Appearance: Dr. Okonya presents as a well-developed man who is confident and pleasant.

Medications:

None

Results of Psychological Testing:

Validity indicators on the MCMI-IV, MMPI-2, and MIPS reflect a highly defensive response style in which Dr. Okonya is inclined to present himself in an overly positive light. This appears to reflect a limited ability to engage in psychologically-minded thought instead of an intentional effort to misrepresent himself. Scores on those measures are considered marginally valid due to the level of defensiveness. Scores on the PAI were considered valid but interpreted within the context of his defensive responding on the other measures.

With regard to neuropsychological testing, Dr. Okonya was alert and cooperative throughout the testing process. He indicated he could both hear and see test material clearly. The results of the neuropsychological testing are deemed an accurate representation of his current level of functioning. There are no issues that would call into question the validity of the present results. Thus, the content of this report can be viewed as an accurate representation of his psychological/cognitive functioning at the time of the assessment.

Behavioral Observations:

During testing, Dr. Okonya was alert and engaged, although he estimated he had only received four hours of sleep the night before the testing and reported feeling fatigued. He did not appear drowsy, and he did not demonstrate any difficulty maintaining alertness. He appeared to put forth his best effort. No abnormalities of speech or movement were observed during the testing.

Neuropsychological Testing Results:

Dr. Okonya’s scores on the WAIS-IV reflect a significant degree of difficulty with abstract verbal reasoning, with a Similarities subtest score indicative of borderline impairment. Dr. Okonya’s responses on the task reflect an incredibly simplistic approach toward identifying abstract connections between increasingly dissimilar concepts. He demonstrates a basic capacity for thinking in an abstract capacity around simple and straightforward ideas, and he struggles as the ideas become more complex. Otherwise, the results are not indicative of any problems with verbal comprehension, perceptual reasoning, working memory, or processing speed. His cognitive capabilities are generally in the average to high average range, with his Matrix Reasoning score falling in the superior range. This is quite an unusual contrast to his Similarities score, as his ability to engage in abstract visual-spatial reasoning appears quite good. This discrepancy appears to indicate that he is better able to engage in abstract reasoning with concepts he can see or touch. It is also possible that, since Similarities was administered early in the testing process, he was not as fully engaged or motivated in the task at that time.

Dr. Okonya’s scores on the CPT 3 were not suggestive of an attentional problem. All scores are within the normative range. He demonstrated an average ability to detect target stimuli. His number of omission errors and commission errors were average. His response speed was average.

On the D-KEFS, Dr. Okonya’s scores do not reflect any difficulties or deficits in the areas of executive functioning that were assessed. Verbal fluency scores were high average to superior. There were no problems related to color naming, word reading, or response inhibition. On the Sorting Test, he demonstrated an average ability to engage in categorical classification and pattern recognition, both when asked to engage in the task freely and to recognize how the stimulus cards were grouped for him. On the Tower Test, he demonstrated an average ability to engage in multi-step visual-spatial planning and execution.

On the Booklet Category Test, Dr. Okonya’s score, compared to his same age and education cohort (Total Error T = 39), falls just below the normative range within the range indicative of mild impairment. This score indicates some difficulty related to the executive functions involved in pattern recognition, deductive reasoning, and adapting to shifting task demands. He seemed to have the most difficulty adapting when the test stimuli required him to modify his understanding of the underlying problem-solving rule. He was able to demonstrate an understanding of the correct problem-solving rule on all of the subtests, although, on several subtests adapting to the correct strategy took him some time and trial and error. His score does not appear to reflect a neurological deficit in executive reasoning but rather limitations in his approach to executive reasoning that put him at risk of poor judgment.

There are no indications of neurocognitive problems or deficits that would impact his judgment, with the exception that he is slow to adapt in terms of executive reasoning and he has a limited capacity for abstract verbal reasoning. Situations are easier for him to navigate when they are simple and straightforward, and he is not necessarily inclined to consider the bigger picture beyond his own personal interest when considering the potential outcomes of his decisions.

Summary of Personality Testing:

Due to the level of defensiveness exhibited on the self-report inventories, it is difficult to glean a comprehensive picture of Dr. Okonya's personality orientation and psychological makeup. He does not endorse any areas of psychological distress, even to the degree that most people are willing to acknowledge. He prefers to see himself as someone who is ambitious, diligent, reliable, responsible, and personable, who happens to be free of shortcomings and personal flaws. This is an unrealistic and overly idealized self-image, which seems to mask underlying insecurities and shortcomings. There are indications that he is prone to overconfidence, which may prime him to come across as inappropriately enthusiastic, immature, or irresponsible in a professional medical environment.

Overall, Dr. Okonya's intellectual abilities should be sufficient for what is required in medical practice. He may find his insecurities triggered in situations where others more easily adapt to changes or find solutions in abstract situations. However, his biggest challenge appears to be related to maturity. He needs to learn what it means to view himself as a professional and develop the ability to conduct himself accordingly. He needs to be able to consider perspectives beyond his own. Unfortunately, given the problems he faces within his program and with the medical board, it is likely to require an intensive process of professional treatment for him to gain the level of insight he needs.

On behalf of the entire assessment team, thank you for the opportunity to evaluate Dr. Okonya. If we can be of further assistance, please call us at 785-856-8218.

Case No. 2022-139

COMPLAINT

The Special Prosecutor for the State Board of Osteopathic Examiners (the "Board"), J. Patrick Quillian, states as follows:

1. Clayton Shane Howell, D.O., is the holder of a license to practice as an osteopathic physician in the State of Oklahoma, license number 5398. Dr. Howell received his license to practice as an osteopathic physician in Oklahoma from the Board July 1, 2015 and is currently in good standing. Dr. Howell is primarily engaged in the practice of family medicine in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

2. Dr. Howell is in violation of the Oklahoma Osteopathic Medicine Act (the "Act"), Tit. 59 O.S. § 637(A)(2) and/or (A)(2)(h), which states

A. The State Board of Osteopathic Examiners may ... suspend or revoke any license issued or reinstated by the Board upon proof that the applicant or holder of such a license:

2. Has engaged in ... unethical conduct or unprofessional conduct, as determined by the Board, in the performance of the functions or duties of an osteopathic physician, including but not limited to the following:

h. engaging in any sexual activity within a physician/patient relationship[.]

3. Dr. Howell was the primary care physician for patient T.E. from April 2019 to February 2022.

4. Sometime in 2020, Dr. Howell began to communicate directly with T.E. by text messaging T.E.'s personal cell phone. The texts were initially of a doctor-patient nature but eventually became personal, with Dr. Howell and T.E. discussing their respective marriages.

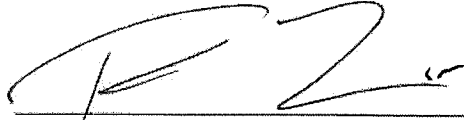

5. In approximately Fall of 2021, Dr. Howell arranged to meet T.E. in person in the parking lot of his medical practice in Tulsa, Oklahoma. After this meeting, the meetings between Dr. Howell and T.E. become more frequent and evolved into a sexual relationship between the two.

6. The sexual relationship between T.E. and Dr. Howell would last into early 2022, at which point Dr. Howell terminated T.E. as a patient. Dr. Howell and T.E.'s sexual relationship would also end around this time.

7. T.E. has suffered psychological distress as a result of having this relationship with Dr. Howell.

8. Dr. Howell has violated the Act by engaging in sexual activity within the physician-patient relationship, to wit: having a sexual relationship with T.E. while T.E. was one of his current patients.
