Alternative Spring Meeting MTSS Data FY24

Tiered strategies organized by academics, behavior, and attendance

	ACADEMICS	BEHAVIOR	ATTENDANCE
Tier One	Build relationships—start where they are	Classroom circles	Assign makeup times
	One-on-one interaction	First Friday breakfast	Attendance reward
	Relationship-building	Preferential seating	Activities—art, sports, games, etc.
	Classroom interventions	PBIS	Rewards
	Tools for anxiety	Peer group connection	Free assignment pass
	Refocus	Leave for lunch early	Participation/effort grades
	Incentive day/free time	Candy/drinks	Free time
	50-cent Sonic corndogs	School store	Schoolwide expectations
	Tutoring	School counselor	Admission contracts
	Early release	Relationships/mutual respect	Class snacks
	Snacks	Off-campus lunch	Caring teacher
	Everyone on pace = monthly pizza party	Preferential seating	Contracts
	Snacks	Student voice/negotiations	Weekly attendance reports
	Brain breaks	Communicate	Safe place
	Study groups	Direct questions: “How can I help?”
	Resource room for ALL students	Schoolwide expectations
	Weekly progress reports	Counseling classroom
	Drop lowest grade
	Reward for earned credits
	Reward for small steps/achievements

	ACADEMICS	BEHAVIOR	ATTENDANCE
Tier Two	Give students a place on campus to regroup	Meeting with student: Why are they not attending?	Assignment exception
	Caretaker/teacher meeting with student	Mentoring	Recreation time
	Positive phone calls/letters home	Certificate of accomplishment	Gift cards/certificates
	Extra credit	Food coupons	Parent contact
	Weekly goals; small steps	Family meetings	Connection to an adult/mentor
	Stay late/extended day	BBQ with students and administration	Call parents/guardian
	Test retakes	Counselor check-in	Discussion with student
	Monthly family meals	Counseling with Alt Ed counselor	Find resources/identify barriers
	Test exemptions	Calming space	Send DA letter
	Preferential seating	Offer rides to school	Rewards
	One-on-one meeting with student	SPARCS (Structured psychotherapy for adolescents responding to chronic stress)	Set short-term goals together
	Tutoring	Visit the goats
	Adjustable daily goals	Walk around the building
	Real-time progress monitoring	Contracts
	Schedule change	Chosen seating
		Student visit with administrator
		Talk from a place of care

	ACADEMICS	BEHAVIOR	ATTENDANCE
Tier Three	Individual tutoring	Group/individual counseling	Youth service
	Academic rewards for met goals	Behavioral health service	Family communication/home visits
	Work with special education	One-on-one with teacher	Address transportation issues
	Award certificate		Student can pick award for meeting attendance goals
			Saturday school