2025

EVENT SUMMARY

The Ardmore Pages Across the Plains Literacy Workshop brought together 30 passionate educators from 11 districts for an intimate day of collaborative learning and reflection. This focused event highlighted the importance of language comprehension and sparked rich discussions around strengthening Tier 1 instruction. Educators—including administrators, teachers, and support staff—explored evidence-based strategies in writing, phonological awareness, and more, leaving with clear, actionable takeaways.

PARTICIPANT FEEDBACK

“Great presenter, well spoken, and very knowledgeable.”

“Love HEROES Team, follow up is just helping how to implement in classroom and how to identify and organize small groups,:

“I enjoyed the stations I can incorporate in the classroom. ”
