The committee may ask questions to proponents and opponents that are present at the meeting. There should not be direct discussion between proponents and opponents. All questions and concerns should be directed to the Committee.

All comments must be relevant to the item under discussion. If a person is disorderly or disruptive, the presiding officer may prohibit that person from addressing the Committee. Disorderly conduct includes, but is not limited to, speaking without being recognized by the presiding officer; presenting comments or material not relevant to the item under consideration; failing to comply with instruction of the presiding officer; or engaging in other conduct, activity or speech that delays the meeting.
