OKLAHOMA PARDON AND PAROLE BOARD COMMUTATION APPLICATION AND INSTRUCTIONS

General Information on Commutation

A commutation consideration is not intended to serve as an early release mechanism but to correct an excessive or unjust sentence. An excessive or unjust sentence is considered in relation to the range of punishment for that crime, evidence that was not available to the court or jury at the time of trial, or a statutory change in the penalty for the crime that now makes the original penalty appear excessive.

A commutation is a substitution of a lesser incarceration term for a greater one or a modification or reduction of a punishment. A commutation consideration is a rare and separate process from a parole or a pardon.

In Oklahoma, only the Governor can approve the commutation of a sentence after a favorable recommendation of the Pardon and Parole Board. The submission of an application does not imply or guarantee that the Pardon and Parole Board will favorably recommend a commutation and/or that the Governor will approve a commutation.

The Pardon and Parole Board utilizes a two-stage process for commutation consideration. The first stage is a Jacket Review. During the Jacket Review, the Pardon and Parole Board will review the application along with any other materials that are submitted with application to determine if the application has merit and should be passed to Stage Two.

If the application is passed to Stage Two, the inmate will have a personal appearance with the Pardon and Parole Board via video conferencing. If an inmate receives a misconduct prior to the hearing, the personal appearance will be cancelled, and the inmate's commutation request will be considered as a jacket review.

Any number of family and friends, often referred to as delegates, are allowed to attend the Stage Two Hearing; however, only two (2) persons can sit before the Pardon and Parole Board and only one (1) is allowed to speak. Delegates speaking on behalf of the inmate are limited to five (5) minutes. Delegates may also submit letters in support of the inmate's application to the Pardon and Parole Board for review. The support letters must be submitted with the application. Letters may be typed or handwritten on one-side only. Handwritten letters must be legible. Please do not use staples. Letters must include the inmate's name, DOC number, and docket month and year on top of each page. The deadline to submit such documentation is the Tuesday before the hearing date.

Victims and/or victim's representatives, the judicial representative from the court of conviction, a Representative from the arresting law enforcement agency and the District Attorney are also allowed to speak in protest of the application.

After the personal appearance, the Pardon and Parole Board will vote to either recommend a commutation or deny the request. If a recommendation occurs, the commutation will be forwarded to the Governor. The Governor will make the final decision to approve or deny a commutation.

Eligibility

Applications can be submitted at any time. However, after an unfavorable recommendation by the Board or the Governor, an applicant may reapply: 1) upon recommendation from the Governor; 2) if there has been a statutory change in the penalty for the crime; or 3) three years from date of denial. Applications, which are deemed as ineligible, will not be processed and the applicant will be notified.

Completing the Application

The applicant should take the following steps in completing the application.

- Type or print the answers in ink.
- If the application is illegible, it will be returned and will not be processed.
- It is the applicant's responsibility to submit a completed application. Every number and blank must have a response. If the answers to a question are incomplete, unclear, or non-responsive, you will be notified. The application will not be processed until it is complete.
- Each question must be answered fully, truthfully, and accurately.
- If the space provided for any answer is insufficient, the answer must be completed on the Optional Continuation Page that is provided. List the question number and include with the application. The applicant must list only one question on each continuation page.
- Altered or retyped forms will be returned.
- Application forms must be filled out completely, signed, dated, and notarized where required.
- The submission of any false information is grounds for immediate denial of the application.
- In completing the application, using "See Attached" on a question is considered non-responsive, unless using the Continuation Page Form. Applicants are expected to complete the question as indicated and include additional information using the Optional Continuation page.
- Do not include the instructions with the application (pages 1-3).
- Do not staple or bind the application in any way.

APPLICANTS SHOULD KEEP A COPY OF THE COMPLETE APPLICATION!
