On February 10, 2021, Governor Kevin Stitt signed SB 1031. This reinstated temporary amendments to the Open Meeting Act that allow public bodies to be conduct meetings via videoconference. The Board will appear via Zoom Videoconference at the site on the agenda but the meeting site will not be open to the public. If the audio connection is lost, the meeting will be stopped and reconvened once it is restored. Any materials discussed in the meeting will immediately be published to the website pursuant to 25 O.S. § 307.1(C)(5). Effective May 4, 2021, Governor Stitt withdrew the pandemic-related state of emergency related; the Board will resume in-person meetings in June.
