
PARDON AND PAROLE BOARD
Policy 125 – Commutation Consideration for Death Row Inmates

POLICY

It is the policy of the Pardon and Parole Board (PPB) if an inmate is scheduled for execution while a commutation application is pending before the Board, such application will be considered under the rules governing clemency. Furthermore, if a commutation hearing has been scheduled during a regularly scheduled meeting of this board, such hearing shall be stricken and a clemency hearing promptly scheduled as required by rule.
