McKinley Avenue Oklahoma City, OK 73118 atozinspections@yahoo.com (405)412-7861		Commercial and residential property inspections	18 years	In addition to running an award-winning property inspection business for almost two decades throughout the southwestern United States, Jack Werner has actively served multiple communities throughout Oklahoma City. He has mentored and supported numerous small businesses (to include my own) throughout Oklahoma without seeking compensation. He has long taught home inspections for Francis Tuttle Technology Center and holds the National Association of Home Builders' Master Instructor certificate. He was named the NAHB's 2019 Certified Aging in Place (CAPS) educator of the year. He maintains a strong presence in Rotary International in which he has been an active member for over 40 years. He not only supports community projects sponsored by his home club in southwest Oklahoma City but has been a principal participant in the Del City, Midwest City, and Sunrise Rotary Clubs. On his own, he donated a bus to the Boys and Girls Club in 2019. A Vietnam War veteran who served with the Army airborne rangers, Jack supports countless veteran projects to include the recent improvements to Manuel Perez Park in recognition of Oklahoma Congressional Medal of Honor recipient PFC Manuel Perez, Jr. Fond of texting encouraging messages, Jack sent one which I will always remember: "Serve others, take care of your family; do not stop working until you can no longer crawl out the door." Not the most eloquent of statements perhaps but it epitomizes Jack's life's mission.	https://atozinspectionsok.com/

Canadian Valley Farms	Andy Wooliver	12781 Slaughterville Rd, Lexington, OK 73051, 405-323-3905, CanadianValleyFarm@gmail.com	Produce, eggs, meat, honey	4-7 years?	Andy and his family put so much time and hard work into growing the best food for their customers. The Woolivers have been successful in finding new markets/channels to grow their business from farmers markets, co-ops, a weekly CSA and even their very own on-farm store. During the COVID-19 shutdown, many Oklahoma families turned to their local farms such as Canadian Valley Farms to source safe and accessible food. The Oklahoma Agritourism program is very proud of our farmers and ranchers like Andy and his family who stepped up, planted all they could in the ground, worked long days and nights to serve Oklahomans and provide for them in this time of need. We hope Oklahomans continue to support local and buy their meat, dairy, eggs, produce, honey, etc. from outstanding people like the Woolivers.	https://www.canadianvalleyfarms.com/

Work-Life Work is partnered with The John Maxwell Team where I serve as an Executive Director. I am both a Society for Human Resources - Certified Professional (SHRM-CP) and a Professional in Human Resources (PHR). I hold a master's degree in Psychology with an Industrial/Organizational emphasis. I assist individuals and team as a Career Strategist, Corporate Trainer and the Owner of Work-Life Work Coaching and Consulting, LLC. My ultimate purpose is to integrate life into work to create triple win encounters for businesses, employees and their customers.	Msarch 2020	As a new start-up Veteran Owned Business, WorkLifeWork is changing the way the transition process works in the military. At the 180 day countdown to her retirement, she pursued her various certifications, formed her LLC, and began piloting and now contracting her resources to individuals and teams, while completing her military services. Her ability to transition smoothly is knowledge and experience other transitioning military members and their spouses can learn from.	https://www.wlifework.com/
